TO: DIRECTOR, FBI
 FROM: SAC, LOS ANGELES (145-new)
 SUBJECT: BUD ABBOTT
 ITOM INTERSTATE TRANSPORTATION OF OBSCENE MATTER
 OO: Los Angeles

On 3/3/58 Officer [redacted], Administrative Vice Detail, Los Angeles PD, advised that a police informant furnished information to the effect that BUD ABBOTT, the well known motion picture and TV star, is a collector of pornography and allegedly has 1,500 reels of obscene motion pictures which he shows in his home where he has a projector of his own. The police informant was approached by ABBOTT to furnish some girls for a private party he is having at an early date.

On 3/4/58 Officer [redacted] advised he had received no further specific date as to when the party is to be held but stated that Ad Vice intends raiding the party when and if it is held and will confiscate all films they are able to find in their search incidental to their arrests.

Although ABBOTT is an alleged collector and there is not an allegation of interstate transportation of this matter, a case is being opened in this office as a control file to follow and report to the Bureau information coming to the attention of this office through police liaison with Ad Vice, LAPD. Officer [redacted] is well aware of the Bureau's interest in this category and any films obtained will be submitted to the FBI Lab for examination and comparison purposes.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Thank you so much for your letter
and for the interest you take in our program.

We are to be in production for the next two months and, if you are in California
during that time, it would give me great pleasure if you would visit our studio and be our guest for lunch.

Very sincerely yours,

Lou Costello

RE: BUD ABBOTT and LOU COSTELLO
Radio Programs on February 4
and 18, 1943 -- ESPIONAGE

EX-13

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to your letter of February 23, 1943, wherein it is noted that [redacted] Illinois, has furnished certain information to your office concerning the above captioned radio programs, requesting that a transcript be made for the purpose of decoding same. It is also noted that [redacted] is very nervous and upset over the long illness and loss of her husband, indicating that her information may not be reliable. On the other hand, it is stated that through a discreet inquiry she is reported as a leader in [redacted] and very highly regarded by those who know her. The Bureau can draw no conclusion from the information furnished concerning [redacted] reliability. It is also to be noted that the full name of [redacted] was not set out which would enable the Bureau to properly check the indices for the purpose of ascertaining whether she had previously furnished information of a similar nature.

b7C

It is further noted that [redacted] claims to be a writer of radio script by profession and due to her knowledge of radio she claims to understand the use of key words in a radio program. Although she has furnished eighty-five key words, she has furnished definitions of only twelve of these words. From the information furnished the Bureau does not understand how [redacted] chose the words contained in the list, labeling them key words, and was only able to give definitions of a small fraction of these.

Inasmuch as [redacted] complaint as set forth in the above reference letter from your office [redacted] should be similarly applied to practically any radio program, no further action is being taken by the Bureau in this matter. The above is being called to your attention in order that in the future when complaints of this nature are received by your office, the complainants will be thoroughly interrogated as to the reasons for their suspicions and requested to supply all facts to substantiate their complaints in order that same may be properly evaluated.

A discreet inquiry reflected that [REDACTED] is very nervous and upset over the long illness and loss of her husband, although she is considered a leader in [REDACTED] and very highly regarded by those who know her. [REDACTED] claims she is acquainted with several Government officials in Washington, that she is distantly related to Mrs. ROOSEVELT and assisted in preparing material for the President's recent campaign.

In view of the possibility that [REDACTED] may write to the Bureau, the above is being submitted for your information and no further investigation is being conducted by this office.

Very truly yours,

ARTHUR H. CROWL
