DETAILS:

The following investigation was conducted by b7C
Special Agent [REDACTED]

On August 18, 1964, [REDACTED] b7C
Chief's Office, Denver, Colorado, Police Department, advised that on this date he had received a threatening letter in the mail from the office of Mr. VERN BYERS, May D&F Company, Denver, Colorado, who is promoting the appearance of The Beatles at the Red Rocks Amphitheater, Jefferson County, Colorado, August 26, 1964. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] stated this letter enclosed another letter, which was addressed to The Beatles, Denver, a.m., and marked urgent and important. The envelope was postmarked August 17,

1964, Greeley, Colorado, a.m., and the letter was comprised of cutout letters from a magazine pasted on plain white paper, which reads as follows:

"If you know what's good for you cancel Denver engagement. I'll be in the audience and I'm going to throw a hand grenade instead of jelly babies.

"Beatle Hater"

[REDACTED] further advised that this letter had been handled by all personnel of the Chief's Department as well as other executive officers of the Denver Police Department. b7C

On August 19, 1964, [REDACTED] made available the above-described letter and advised that the Denver Police Department will have approximately 200 police officer assigned to handle the crowd when The Beatles perform and that they are all being advised of the receipt of this letter. He further advised that the Jefferson County Sheriff's Office, Golden, Colorado, was also supplying police personnel to handle the crowd. He stated that the Sheriff has not been advised of the receipt of this letter. b7C

On August 19, 1964, [REDACTED] National Academy, Jefferson County Sheriff's Office, Golden, Colorado, was advised regarding the receipt of this letter at which time he stated he was supplying approximately 50 police personnel to assist the Denver Police Department in handling the crowd when The Beatles appear at the Red Rocks Amphitheater and he will advise them regarding receipt of this letter. b7C

On August 18, 1964, Assistant United States Attorney JAMES A. CLARK, Denver, Colorado, was contacted and advised of the details of the receipt of this letter threatening The Beatles at which time he stated he would defer rendering a prosecutive opinion until it can be determined whether subject can be identified; however, he believes that the threat does fall within the purview of the Federal Extortion Statute.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent [REDACTED] at Greeley, Colorado: b7C

On August 18, 1964, [REDACTED] Superintendent of Mails, advised that he had no information which would be of assistance in identifying the subject in this case. He stated that no similar incidents had been reported to his office. b7C

On August 20, 1964, [REDACTED] United States Postal Inspector at Greeley, Colorado, stated he has had no similar letters reported to him and he could furnish no information as to the possible identity of the subject. b7C

On August 20, 1964, [REDACTED] at Greeley, Colorado, advised that he could not identify the individual who prepared this letter and that no similar incidents had been reported to his office. b7C

On August 20, 1964, [REDACTED] Detective Division, Greeley, Colorado, Police Department, advised that no similar letters had been turned over to the Police Department and that no threatening letters of any nature had come to his attention during the past year. He stated he could not furnish any information which would be of assistance in identifying the subject. b7C

On September 17, 1964, [REDACTED] Greeley, Colorado, High School, Greeley, Colorado, advised that during the past school year, and in fact during the past several years, no letters similar to b7C

the one sent to The Beatles have been found among the students at the high school. He stated that he has no information which would be of assistance in identifying the subject.

On August 20, 1964, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Greeley, Colorado, advised that no similar letters have come to the attention of the [REDACTED] and that she has no information which would assist in identifying the subject.

b7D

On September 4, 1964, the FBI Laboratory advised that the handprinting on the submitted evidence was compared with the appropriate sections of the anonymous letter file without affecting an identification.

On September 4, 1964, the FBI Identification Division, Latent Fingerprint Section, advised that no latent impressions of value were developed on the specimens.

On August 27, 1964, [REDACTED] (National Academy), Denver Police Department, Traffic Bureau, advised Special Agent [REDACTED] that no incidents occurred indicating an attempt to harm the Beatles during their stay in Denver.
