Reference is made to New York memorandum
dated May 16, 1969.

67C

On June 30, 1969, [redacted]
[redacted] of the New York City Police Department (NYCPD) advised a Special Agent (SA) of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) that Abbott Hoffman did not appear in Part 1D1 of the Criminal Court of the City of New York, Room 415, 100 Centre Street, New York City, for trial on that date in connection with his having been arrested by the NYCPD on April 11, 1969, on charges of Disorderly Conduct, Resisting Arrest, Harassment, Obstructing Governmental Administration (Docket Number-B9547) and Felonious Assault (Docket Number-A5570).

They stated that a representative of the District Attorney's Office advised the court that Hoffman's attorney, Gerald Lefcourt, had notified the District Attorney's Office that Hoffman would not be in court inasmuch as he had to appear in court in Chicago, Illinois, on this date.

They stated that Judge Donald S. Weiss ordered the forfeiture of $ 2,500.00 bail and issued a bench warrant for Hoffman's arrest.

They stated that the representative of the District Attorney's Office requested a stay of the bench warrant but that Judge Weiss denied it.

They stated that in the event that Hoffman voluntarily surrenders or is arrested on the bench warrant, Judge Weiss set a new trial date for August 8, 1969.

NATIONAL EMERGENCY CIVIL LIBERTIES
COMMITTEE, Formerly Known As
Emergency Civil Liberties Committee

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications", revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., contains the following concerning the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee:

"Emergency Civil Liberties Committee

- "1. 'The Emergency Civil Liberties Committee is an organization with headquarters in New York, whose avowed purpose is to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities and discredit the FBI. * * *
The committee finds that the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, established in 1951, although representing itself as a non-Communist group, actually operates as a front for the Communist Party. It has repeatedly assisted, by means of funds and legal aid, Communists involved in Smith Act violations and similar legal proceedings. One of its chief activities has been and still is the dissemination of voluminous Communist propaganda material.'

'FRANK WILKINSON was called as a witness when he appeared in Atlanta as a representative of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee - to propagandize against the Committee on Un-American Activities and to protest its hearings. In 1956 WILKINSON was identified as a Communist Party member by a former FBI undercover agent within the Party. Summoned at that time to answer the allegation, his reply to all questions was, "I am answering no questions of this committee." This also became his stock reply to questions

when he appeared during the Atlanta hearings. * * * WILKINSON has since been convicted of contempt of Congress and sentenced to one year in jail.'

'Disputing the non-Communist claim of the organization, the committee finds that a number of other individuals connected with the ECLC also have been identified under oath as Communists.* * *'
(Committee on Un-American Activities, Annual Report for 1958, House Report 187, March 9, 1959, pp. 34 and 35.)

"2. 'To defend the cases of Communist law-breakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the * * * Emergency Civil Liberties Committee. When the Communist Party itself is under fire these fronts offer a bulwark of protection.'
(Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Handbook for Americans, S. Doc. 117, April 23, 1956, p. 91.)"

"The New York Times", a New York City daily newspaper, in its April 1, 1968, issue, page 13, contained an item captioned, "Draft Dissenters to Get More Help", which related that at a news conference held by the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (ECLC) on the previous day, it was announced that the organization was changing its name to the National Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (NECLC) "to reflect our determination to develop a vital national civil liberties organization in all 50 states as rapidly as possible."

This is to advise that on the evening of 7/13/69, captioned individual appeared on the Lou Gordon interview-type TV show on Channel 50, a Kaiser TV Station, in Detroit, where he was interviewed. HOFFMAN was on a panel with JAMES FREED, identified as the State Representative of the Patriotic Party in Michigan. HOFFMAN stated during the course of the above interview that he was in Michigan to attend a Revolutionary Media Conference at Ann Arbor, Michigan. This is the subject of a separate investigation in the Detroit Office and details of the conference are being furnished the Bureau on a continuing basis.

HOFFMAN said he enjoyed "dope", "sex", "making revolution and doing anything to destroy the system. He called President NIXON, a Detroit Federal Judge, and a Michigan Sheriff "pigs."

A second unidentified "hippie" type subject, stating he was in Ann Arbor, Mich., to attend an underground newspaper conference, complained to the Ann Arbor, Michigan City Council meeting 7/14/69 of police action against that group.

Rerep of SA [REDACTED] 5/20/69, at Cleveland captioned, "ABBOTT HOWARD HOFFMAN, aka., ARL," and New York airtel to Bureau, CC to Cleveland, 7/18/69.

Referenced New York airtel pointed out that subject was interviewed on the Allen Douglas Show, Channel 61, Cleveland, Ohio, on 4/26/69 and on page 4 of this airtel a lead was set forth for Cleveland to attempt through established sources to determine actual funds received and expended by subject during his appearance on Channel 61, Cleveland, Ohio, on 4/26/69.

Referenced Cleveland report in the details set forth the results of subject's appearance on the Allen Douglas Show on Channel 61, Cleveland, Ohio, on 4/26/69 which was taped by SA [REDACTED] at the Cleveland Office. As pointed out in the administrative page of this report Cleveland sources were unable to furnish information regarding subject's activities while in Cleveland and/or who financed subject's trip.

In addition, Cleveland has no established sources at Channel 61, Cleveland, Ohio, who could be contacted to ascertain whether subject received any funds for his appearance on the Allen Douglas Show on Channel 61, Cleveland, Ohio, on 4/26/69.

Contact with ALLEN DOUGLAS, moderator of the Allen Douglas Show on Channel 61, Cleveland, Ohio, is not being considered in this matter as it could result in possible embarrassment to the Bureau because of the controversial nature of DOUGLAS' show and guests.

ReBulet 4/2/69 transmitting a copy of the Key Activist Album and issuing instructions that the maintenance of the Album in a current condition would be the specific responsibility of the office of origin in each individual case. By routing slip dated 5/7/69 you were reminded of this responsibility and instructed to thoroughly review your Key Activist cases and promptly submit amended pages by routing slip.

New York report of SA [redacted] dated 6/25/69 set forth employment for Hoffman, his FBI Number and other arrest numbers, and the residence and business addresses of his brother. Although this information has been available to you for some time, the Bureau has not received a revised biographic sketch on Hoffman. This should be submitted immediately.

This is the fourth time it has been necessary to communicate with you concerning delinquencies in maintaining the Album. You are reminded that the Album was prepared primarily for the benefit of the field, and failure to keep it current will not be tolerated.

ABBOTT HOWARD HOFFMAN
SECURITY MATTER - ANARCHIST

The "Chicago Sun Times", a daily newspaper published in Chicago, Illinois, in their issue of July 23, 1969, contained an article on page 32, headlined: "Drop 1 of 2 Charges On Yippie". Instant article reflected in part as follows:

"A charge of unlawful use of a weapon against Yippie leader Abbie Hoffman, 31, was dropped Tuesday. Mass Arrest Court Judge Kenneth R. Wendt said there was a question whether the knife police said Hoffman carried with him when he was arrested Sept. 17 (1968) was lethal".

"Asst. Corporation Counsel Richard J. Elrod said, 'It's merely a question of legal technicalities.' The knife that Hoffman had with him was not a switchblade, as had been reported. It was rather a large folding knife - somewhat larger than an ordinary pocket knife".

"Hoffman is also being charged with conspiring to use interstate commerce with the intent to incite acts of violence and we feel that is sufficient. We simply decided not to press the issue of the concealed weapons charge, Elrod said".

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. It is the property of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Instant article also stated that Hoffman was one of a group of New Yorkers who formed the Youth International Party, and that he was one of eight demonstrators indicted by a Federal Grand Jury on criminal charges arising from disturbances during the Democratic Convention in Chicago in August, 1968.

The "Chicago Daily News", a daily newspaper published in Chicago, Illinois, in their issue of July 23, 1969, contained an article on page 26, headlined: "Yippie Leader Cleared Of Knife Charge". Instant article reflected in part as follows:

"Charges of unlawful use of a weapon against Yippie leader Abbie Hoffman were dropped when city prosecutors failed to produce the switchblade knife police said they had found on Hoffman at O'Hare Airport last Sept. 17. Mass Arrest Court Judge Kenneth R. Wendt dropped the charges Tuesday after the city produced only a pocketknife with a 4-inch blade. Wendt said the knife apparently had been improperly described in the warrant against Hoffman. He (Hoffman) did not appear in court Tuesday".

The following references on Abbie Hoffman appear in the file captioned "Disturbances Arising Out of the Democratic National Convention" (DNC) and pertain to Hoffman's participation and involvement in the marches, rallies and demonstrations in Grant and Lincoln Parks in Chicago in August 1968, during the DNC. Hoffman was known as the organizer of the YIP and the leader of "yippy" movement. He made speeches and encouraged the demonstrators to use weapons, and also encouraged direct confrontation with the police. Hoffman was considered one of the greatest agitators whose motive was to disrupt the convention, embarrass the mayor and make it appear that they were being oppressed. Hoffman was arrested on 8/28/68 for having an obscene word written on his forehead. He was charged with disorderly conduct and resisting arrest. Hoffman also participated in the disorders at Columbia University in New York. He was one of the negotiators with the city of Chicago for a permit to use Lincoln Park during the convention.

The following references in the file captioned "Youth International Party" (YIP) aka "Yippies" pertain to the activities of Abbe Hoffman, one of the founders. These activities took place in NYC, Chicago, and Washington, D.C., between January 1968, until 11/25/68. One of the activities was closing St. Mark's Place to traffic with the purpose of pressuring the city of NY into providing services to the hippies.

Hoffman spoke [REDACTED] and press conferences. He participated in the disorders at the Democratic National Convention in August 1968. He was one of the signers of the Black Panther article to disrupt the National Election in November 1968. Hoffman also helped to plan strategy for the Presidential Inauguration in January 1969. He was arrested numerous times including during the HUAC Hearings in October 1968 for wearing a shirt that appeared to have been made from an American flag. The "New York Post" in its

2/2/68 issue, set forth an article entitled "Gaily, Gaily, Hippies Going Into Politics," which stated in part as follows: "As for plans by Chicago Mayor Daley and the FBI to halt any convention-disrupting stuff, the Yippies had little but scorn. The mayor and J. Edgar Freako will not stop us, they insisted." Hoffman was critical of FBI investigations and stated FBI Agents only laughed when he suggested that they investigate police brutality. It was reported in August 1968 that the YIP closed its office at 32 Union Square, NYC, removed all records to the residence of Hoffman, one of its leaders.

The following references on Abbie Hoffman appear in the file captioned "Democratic National Convention" and pertain to his activities in NYC and Chicago between January 1968 and 12/2/68. Hoffman described as a leader of the Yippies which was organized in January 1968, took an active part in the disorders surrounding the convention in Chicago during August 1968. Hoffman reportedly commented in underground publications regarding preplanning to disrupt Chicago and the convention. He anticipated several thousand arrests would be made. He spoke [redacted] and had a press interview. At a LBJ "unbirthday party" he spoke about "pigs" in the Government and the Chicago Police Department. Hoffman stated that the YIP which was conceived for the convention was to be dissolved when it ended. Hoffman was hospitalized for hepatitis and was therefore

The following references on Abbie Hoffman appear in the file captioned "National Mobilization Committee To End The War In Vietnam" and pertain to Hoffman's activities between 4/15/67 and 1/28/69 in NYC, Washington, D.C. and Chicago, Ill. Hoffman reportedly, was a member of a "hippie" group known as the Jade Companions, whose purpose was to educate persons arrested for narcotic violations, and to supply bail money to those arrested for these offenses. Hoffman was believed to use some type of narcotics. Hoffman participated in anti-Vietnam demonstrations and was arrested during the Pentagon demonstration in October 1967. In September 1968, Hoffman was arrested for carrying a concealed weapon, a knife aboard an aircraft.

In January 1969 Hoffman appeared for trial in Chicago on charges of disorderly conduct and resisting arrest during the Democratic National Convention in August 1968. Hoffman made the statement that he had been arrested twenty-three times but never convicted.

"The Minneapolis Tribune," Minneapolis, Minn. dated 2/11/69, carried an article entitled "U.S. Nazi Head Calls For White Community, No Negroes, Jews". This article in part noted the following: "Brian Valentino, President of Students for Free Speech, which sponsored Koehl's talk, referred to acts of intimidation in the hallway, and said his group had invested $600 in fees, hall rental and expenses for the speech. The group hopes to bring new-left leader Abbie Hoffman and a Black Panther spokesman from California for later appearances at the university, he said." The article indicated that Matt Koehl, succeeded George Lincoln Rockwell as Nazi Chairman after Rockwell was shot to death in 1967.

ABBOTT HOWARD HOFFMAN

A review of the case entitled Abbott Howard Hoffman vs. The United States (Case # 4865) on file with the Clerk's Office, D.C. Court of Appeals, Washington, D.C. (WDC), by a representative of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) on August 15, 1969, disclosed the following information:

On August 14, 1969, the D.C. Court of Appeals affirmed the judgment rendered by Judge Andrew J. Howard, Jr., of the D.C. Court of General Sessions convicting Hoffman of defiling the American flag by wearing a shirt resembling the flag and sentencing him to pay a fine of one hundred dollars or serve thirty days in jail on November 20, 1968.

Hoffman was arrested on October 3, 1968, when he arrived at the House of Representatives Office Building (WDC), to attend a hearing of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, dressed in a shirt resembling the American flag.

Abbott Howard Hoffman
Security Matter-Anarchist

Reference is made to New York memorandum dated June 30, 1969.

On August 8, 1969, at approximately 9:50 a.m., a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (SA, FBI), observed Abbott Hoffman, and subsequently his attorney, Gerald Lefcourt, enter Part 1D1 of the Criminal Court of the City of New York, Room 415, 100 Centre Street, New York City (NYC), where Hoffman was scheduled to appear before the court for a preliminary hearing in connection with his having been arrested by the NYC Police Department (PD) on April 11, 1969, on charges of Disorderly Conduct, Resisting Arrest, Harassment, Obstructing Governmental Administration (Docket Number B9547) and Felonious Assault (Docket Number A 5570).

At 3:30 p.m. the SA of the FBI observed Hoffman and his attorney, Gerald Lefcourt, leave the court room and proceed to the elevators of the building.

b7c

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] advised an SA of the FBI on August 8, 1969, that due to a very large number of cases on the court calendar, Abbott Hoffman's case was not called until 2:40 p.m., on August 8, 1969, in Part 1D1 of the Criminal Court of the City of New York.
The case was heard by Criminal Court Judge Arthur H. Goldberg who ordered the Felonious Assault charge (a felony) reduced to Simple Assault (a misdemeanor). He also reduced bail on the assault charge from $2,000.00 to $1,000.00, while maintaining the $500.00 bail on the other charges. Abbott Hoffman plead not guilty to all of the charges and the case was adjourned to November 17, 1969, in Part 2B of the Criminal Court of NYC.

The March, 1969 issue of "Rights", self-described as a publication of the National Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (NECLC) on page 12, reported that on February 1, (1969), the NECLC welcomed Gerald Lefcourt to its staff as Legislative Director.

A characterization of the NECLC is attached hereto.

APPENDIX

NATIONAL EMERGENCY CIVIL LIBERTIES
COMMITTEE, Formerly Known As
Emergency Civil Liberties Committee

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications", revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., contains the following concerning the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee:

"Emergency Civil Liberties Committee

"1. 'The Emergency Civil Liberties Committee is an organization with headquarters in New York, whose avowed purpose is to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities and discredit the FBI. * * * The committee finds that the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, established in 1951, although representing itself as a non-Communist group, actually operates as a front for the Communist Party. It has repeatedly assisted, by means of funds and legal aid, Communists involved in Smith Act violations and similar legal proceedings. One of its chief activities has been and still is the dissemination of voluminous Communist propaganda material.'

'FRANK WILKINSON was called as a witness when he appeared in Atlanta as a representative of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee to propagandize against the Committee on Un-American Activities and to protest its hearings. In 1956 WILKINSON was identified as a Communist Party member by a former FBI undercover agent within the Party. Summoned at that time to answer the allegation, his reply to all questions was, "I am answering no questions of this committee." This also became his stock reply to questions

when he appeared during the Atlanta hearings. * * * WILKINSON has since been convicted of contempt of Congress and sentenced to one year in jail.'

'Disputing the non-Communist claim of the organization, the committee finds that a number of other individuals connected with the ECLC also have been identified under oath as Communists. * * *'

(Committee on Un-American Activities, Annual Report for 1958, House Report 167, March 9, 1959, pp. 34 and 35.)

"2. 'To defend the cases of Communist law-breakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the * * * Emergency Civil Liberties Committee. When the Communist Party itself is under fire these fronts offer a bulwark of protection.' (Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Handbook for Americans, S. Doc. 117, April 23, 1956, p. 91.)" b7D [REDACTED] that the NECLC is located at 25 East 26th Street, New York City.

"The New York Times", a New York City daily newspaper, in its April 1, 1968, issue, page 13, contained an item captioned, "Draft Dissenters to Get More Help", which related that at a news conference held by the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (ECLC) on the previous day, it was announced that the organization was changing its name to the National Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (NECLC) "to reflect our determination to develop a vital national civil liberties organization in all 50 states as rapidly as possible."

Yippie Appeal Is Rejected in U.S. Flag Case

The conviction of Yippie leader Abbie Hoffman for desecrating the American flag last fall was upheld today by the D.C. Court of Appeals. Hoffman was arrested Oct. 3 when he wore a shirt resembling the flag to a congressional hearing.

The court ruled that Hoffman's conduct amounted to "defiling" the flag in violation of a new federal law that makes such activity a crime.

Speaking for a three-judge panel, Chief Judge Andrew M. Hood rejected the contention of Hoffman's attorney, Gerald B. Lefcourt, that the law is unconstitutional.

"Contemptuous Conduct" Cited

"Surely the government has a substantial, genuine and important interest in protecting the flag from public desecration by contemptuous conduct," Hood wrote in a five-page opinion.

"We find the statute to be a reasonable regulation . . . and it does not unnecessarily impinge on a citizen's right to protest."

Calling the ruling "really shocking," Lefcourt said the case would be taken to the U.S. Court of Appeals and, if it isn't overturned there, to the Supreme Court.

Hoffman, 31, was arrested when he appeared to testify on his protest activities at the 1968 Democratic National Convention.

Convicted Nov. 20

On Nov. 20, the late Judge Andrew J. Howard Jr. of the Court of General Sessions found Hoffman guilty and sentenced him to 30 days in jail or a $100 fine.

Before the D.C. Appeals Court, Lefcourt argued that desecrating the American flag is "classic protest" and should be legally permitted as free speech. Hoffman's actions were "symbolic speech," he said.

"We disagree," Hood said in his opinion. "The First Amendment protects freedom of speech and not freedom of conduct."
