II. ACTIVITIES

A. Black Panther Party

On the evening of March 23, 1970, SAS of the FBI observed a benefit for the New York Panther 21, which was held at the Village Gate, Thompson Street, New York City, from about 8:00 p.m. until midnight, with about 450 people in attendance. Principle topics of discussion included the Panther 21 trial in New York City, the trial of BOBBY SEALE in New Haven, Connecticut, and the trial of the Chicago Seven.

Among the participants were ABBIE HOFFMAN, JERRY RUBIN and LEONARD WEINGLASS.

RUBIN played a recording of what he described as the Yippie National Anthem called, "I'm Proud To Be An Okie From Miskokee", a country western song criticizing every aspect of hippie life. RUBIN in his remarks advocated support of the Postal strike and urged everyone to demonstrate at the Main Post Office on March 24, 1970.

HOFFMAN put on a comedy skit concerning incidents that occurred during the Chicago Seven trial. He also stated that the movement is more concerned about the liberals than they were about the conservatives. HOFFMAN urged everyone to act this Spring, especially on April 4, 1970, when a march from Central Park, New York City, to Queens, New York City, would take place and to let the people know that you want revolution. HOFFMAN requested everyone present to join the "Conspiracy-In" in the Sheep Meadow in Central Park, New York City, Easter Sunday, March 29, 1970.

LEONARD WEINGLASS spoke about the legal aspects regarding the trial of the Chicago Seven for about 40 minutes, during which he stated how corrupt and insensitive Judge JULIUS HOFFMAN was. He also cited many instances in which Judge HOFFMAN made a fool of himself.

BOBBY SEALE is publicly identified as the National Chairman of the Black Panther Party (BPP).

and HOFFMAN also indicated that they would announce that they were going to fight TIMOTHY LEARY'S recent arrest and conviction for possession of narcotics because they feel he is doing pioneer work in the right to pleasure.

67D [REDACTED] that on March 24, 1970, a press conference was held at the Hotel Diplomat from approximately 11:30 a.m. to 11:50 a.m. JERRY RUBIN and ABBIE HOFFMAN made no speeches, but sat in high back chairs bound and gagged as a joke. RUBIN'S girlfriend, TIMOTHY LEARY'S wife and MARTY KENNER, from the Legal Defense for the Panther 21, announced that the "Conspiracy" had raised $65,000 through an investment in the Bank of America at Santa Barbara, California, and that they would use the money to bail out one of the Panther 21. They all mentioned the "Conspiracy-In" to be held in Central Park, New York City, on March 29, 1970.

67D The New York "Daily News", a NYC daily newspaper, issue of March 25, 1970 page 24, contained an article entitled "Yippies Raise 100G for Black Panther Bail". The article in part states "The Youth International Party - better known as the Yippies - said yesterday that it had raised $65,000 to get another of the 12 jailed Black Panthers out on bail. Asked where the money came from, Yippie leader ABBIE HOFFMAN said 'We got it from the Bank of America in Santa Barbara, California.' (That bank was burned to the ground February 25 during a student riot sparked by the conviction of HOFFMAN and four others in the Chicgo 7 conspiracy case)----". The article notes that HOFFMAN joked about the bail money.

Excerpts from this tape recording are set forth as follows concerning remarks made by the subject:

"I will (inaudible) to organize seven year olds think if a seven year old kid (inaudible) he ain't doing it right. (Inaudible) therefore, I believe that they should use a little different strategy, possibly at the trial too. Look at what it is. I think it's a tool, a weapon. A weapon (inaudible). It is possibly the only trial in history in which people have to leave the Federal Building to search for air (laughter and applause). The (inaudible) that court like it's a theater, like it's a school. Like I explain to the gap (laughter). We sent him so far about 17 gallons of Geritol (laughter and applause). As he said before, 'the Defendants have no respect for the highest court in the land, they ain't high'. There is no danger there. It is like nothing last year in Chicago, running around the streets (inaudible) fighting with the pigs, all that gas, mace. Well we had a lot of experience with that. We've grown accustomed to mace. We've grown accustomed to Chicago because Chicago is the United States. The United States in 1968, 1969, maybe

" forever, who knows if history books still law abiding. Maybe it's the most violent country that ever lived. I know where I lived, on the lower east side of Manhattan, it's a bad place, filled with violence. Right on my block twenty cops to patrol every single night. Violence in the streets, sure. Me and my old lady, we got a plant that's been mugged (laughter) (inaudible). In the courtroom it's a different thing because of the little pipsqueak up there, a bald-headed midget (laughter). All he's got to do is bang his gavel down once and say that word contempt and away we go, six months, two years, something like that. Still (inaudible) up there. (Inaudible) because after this trial we're going to have to send that (laughter). (Inaudible) but that's not what we're guilty of. Every single minute we're in that courtroom, we are guilty of contempt because we just can't relate to people that come with signs, banners and buttons. He says let's have a fair trial. We don't understand where they are living. But we think the trial's got to be stopped (applause). Well, it's time we think about how to stop it because this trial's going to last right up to 1984. Autumn, winter, spring, summer, we'll be there, but we'll be fighting because that's what we came here to do. We came here to delegitimize that institution, because we feel what's going on in there. But last year, 1968, when JOHNSON and DALEY conspired to (inaudible) the streets of Chicago, NIXON and MITCHELL kept conspiring to finish it in the courts and we aim to stop this trial (applause)."

C. Saint Louis University
Saint Louis, Missouri
November 30, 1969

[REDACTED] that a Saint Louis University (SLU), Saint Louis, Missouri, student organization in charge of obtaining campus speakers had reportedly contracted JOHN FROINES to speak at Kelley Auditorium, SLU, at 8:00 p.m., on November 30, 1969.

[REDACTED] that ABBIE HOFFMAN would join JOHN FROINES at SLU, November 30, 1969. The meeting place was changed from Kelley Auditorium to the SLU Gymnasium, with a capacity of 2300. HOFFMAN'S speech was entitled "White Racial Dissent In America", and FROINES' was "legal and Moral Aspects of the Conspiracy Trial". The program was not sanctioned by SLU and RAY WEST, an SLU student requested the use of SLU facilities.

[REDACTED] about 250 people attended the meeting, November 30, 1969, which ran from 8:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. JOHN FROINES spoke first, stating that the trial of the Conspiracy 8 was not based on a violation of law, but that the defendants' long hair and political beliefs were on trial.

ABBIE HOFFMAN spoke during the last hour. His approach was much coarser than FROINES and he used profanity constantly. Many in the audience left after HOFFMAN started speaking. He said that the government was trying to convict him of conspiracy with an airplane ticket from San Francisco to Chicago and his being in a tree in Lincoln Park as evidence and that most of the 8 did not even know each other before they were indicted.

HOFFMAN said that students should not work if they did not want to. Instead, they should "struggle" and struggling involves "fighting - which is more fun than working". HOFFMAN asked for donations to support the Conspiracy 8.

The "Saint Louis Post Dispatch", a Saint Louis, Missouri, daily newspaper, in its December 1, 1969, issue contained an article entitled "Chicago 7 Trial For Beliefs, Two Say" which stated in part as follows:

"The seven defendants in the Chicago conspiracy trial are being tried for their political beliefs and their state of mind, not for criminal acts, two of the defendants said here last night.

"FROINES and ABBOTT (ABBIE) HOFFMAN, a former clinical psychologist and now a leader of the Youth International Party, spoke at Saint Louis University. Their appearance was sponsored by the Saint Louis University Community for Peace. About 400 persons attended.

"The seven men are charged with inciting to riot at the 1968 Democratic national convention in Chicago. Clashes between police and the youthful demonstrators occurred during the convention.

"HOFFMAN and FROINES said the government's attempts to silence them and protesters like them smacked of fascism. HOFFMAN asserted fascism would 'come in through revolving doors and self-service elevators', conditions that exists at the Chicago trial.

"The trial is an effort by the government to stamp out the radical movement and its organizers, HOFFMAN said. He said such efforts should be resisted, 'but first we've got to learn to survive.'

"HOFFMAN'S address was laced with sarcasm directed at Judge JULIUS ROSENBERG, who is hearing the case in Chicago, and President RICHARD M. NIXON. It was rich with profanity."

The "Saint Louis Globe Democrat", Saint Louis, Missouri, daily newspaper, in its December 1, 1969, issue contained an article entitled, "FROINES Labels Chicago Case a 'trial of '60s'", which stated in part as follows:

"JOHN R. FROINES, one of eight men on trial in Chicago on charges of inciting to riot during the Democratic National Convention last year, told an audience of Saint Louis University students Sunday night that the trial is a 'trial of the sixties'.

"FROINES, speaking with fellow defendant ABBIE HOFFMAN, told a crowd of 750 at the university gymnasium that the past 10 years are on trial and we're representative of those 10 years.

"ACTUALLY, everyone in this room (the gymnasium) is on trial, not just eight men," FROINES added.

"HOFFMAN opened his address by raising his shirt tails to scratch his bare stomach with both hands. He then spent a half-hour satirizing the trial proceedings, spicing his remarks with loud exclamations and occasional four-letter words.

"For their addresses, FROINES and HOFFMAN were to receive $1,000, said STEVE CARTER, an SLU student who helped bring the pair to the campus through the university's Community for Peace organization. The fee was to be paid out of student and faculty members' personal pledges and admission profits. Admission was $1."

March 12, 1970

The "El Mundo" a daily Spanish language newspaper published in San Juan, Puerto Rico, in its March 14, 1970, issue contained an article entitled "Hoffman Says He Came To The Island Prompted By Hallucination" which stated in part as follows:

"ABBIE HOFFMAN was one of the visitors from abroad who attended the assembly of the General Student Council held on Thursday, at the University of Puerto Rico.

"During an interview with HOFFMAN, he said that he had been in jail a week ago and that he is free on bond. He said that everything he said was what he felt in his heart. At about 11:07 a.m. on Thursday, he recorded, upon request of a university student, the slogan 'Country or Death, we will conquer,' said in Spanish with an English accent, which he learned right there from the person who requested him to say something for the group.

"HOFFMAN, who seemed enthusiastic with the attitude of the student leaders and the student's attendance at the assembly, described the American people as racially prejudiced. He said that the feeling reflected in the assembly was 'exuberant.'

"The visitor has been travelling with his wife, who also attended the Council's assembly. When asked what was the main issue in the United States at present, HOFFMAN said that it was the ROTC. He said that the Viet Nam war has come to a secondary position at this time.

"Upon answering questions about the purpose of his visit to the University of Puerto Rico, he said, 'I had a hallucination in jail about the Island of Puerto Rico and decided to come.'

"Concerning the University incidents, he said that he had

He pointed out that the ROTC here is a clear indication of Yankee imperialism, because the people do not have any representation in the Government.

"Concerning the organizations with which he is connected, HOFFMAN said that he knows the Young Lords of Chicago, but not those of New York, where, he assured, the main issue among the Latins is that of independence for Puerto Rico, but that the economic issue is used to scare the people.

"HOFFMAN said that he likes San Juan and would like to come back, but that since he is free on bond, he must go back while his case is under appeal in Chicago."

at Columbia University on March 13, 1970:

"About 500 demonstrators staged a sit-in at Columbia University's Uris Hall at 3:30 yesterday after hearing Yippie leader Abbie Hoffman tell a rally that all laws should be violated, 'including the law of gravity.'

"The sit-in in the Business School building was to support a demand that Columbia put up money to bail out 12 Black Panthers who are jailed in an alleged bomb-and-kill conspiracy.

"Hoffman, who is free in $25,000 bail after being convicted in the Chicago Seven trial, earlier told about 2,000 young people on Low Plaza that the wave of bombings is the start of 'spring housecleaning.'

"Urging the students to oppose the establishment everywhere, Hoffman declared: 'The Yippies believe in the violation "of every law on the books including the law of gravity."

"Referring to the bombings, he cracked: 'What goes up doesn't necessarily come down.' "

The "Columbia Daily Spectator" a Columbia University undergraduate student newspaper, in its March 16, 1970 issue contained an article entitled "Senate Scores Government Actions, But Rejects Bid For Panthers' Bail; 400 Stage Sit-In At Uris", which stated in part as follows:

"Several hundred radical students, demanding that the university provide bail for members of the Black Panther Party currently jailed on conspiracy charges, briefly occupied Uris Hall Friday afternoon, then led a march across campus during which about 40 windows were smashed in six Columbia buildings.

"The actions--sponsored by the December 4th Movement (D4M)--followed a mass rally on Low Plaza called by a coalition of student groups to back the demand that the university provide defense funds for the Panther 21.

"Yippie leader Abbie Hoffman, a defendant in the Chicago conspiracy trial; Afeni Shakur, of the Panther 21; Jean Genet, the French playwright; members of the Third World Coalition and a spokesman for the Students' Afro-American Society addressed the crowd of nearly 2500 sprawled in front of Low Library while the University Senate was debating whether to raise money for the Panthers.

"Abbie Hoffman then delivered a rollicking, half-serious speech to the expectant crowd. Hoffman, who had just returned from Puerto Rico, described an anti-ROTC student strike in progress at the University of Puerto Rico in San Juan, then launched into a series of one-liners.

"'Have you heard the weather report?' he queried. 'Well, Mark Rudd gave the weather report on the Today Show and I'll tell you about the weather map. Seattle--boom! San Francisco--boom! New York--boom! boom! boom!' Hoffman said the Yippies--of which he is a co-founder--believe in 'violating

"every law, including the law of gravity," and said that the recent bombings in New York show that 'what goes up don't necessarily have to come down' The bombs, he said, were an example of 'better living through chemistry.'

"Claiming that he was given 'a first-class American education' by a policeman who clubbed him on Low Plaza during the spring '68 rebellion, Hoffman said he was 'glad to be home' and that the conspiracy 'wasn't going to rest' until the Panther 21 received a fair trial."

[REDACTED] that on March 18, 1970, ABBIE HOFFMAN spoke before approximately 600 members of the student body in the gymnasium of St. John's University, Brooklyn Center, 96 Schermerhorn Street, Brooklyn, NY, from 11:45 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

[REDACTED] that ABBIE HOFFMAN in his remarks spoke mainly on the "Chicago Seven" trial and the outdated court system. He also gave his general views on religion and the decadent society in America. He did not advocate any violence during his speech and no incidents or arrests occurred.

[REDACTED] that ABBIE HOFFMAN said that any fees that he received would go to the appeal fund for the "Chicago Seven", which will cost approximately $300,000.

[REDACTED] that no admission was charged to the students on this occasion, although a fee was paid to ABBIE HOFFMAN for his appearance.

[REDACTED] that in answer to inquiries from students, ABBIE HOFFMAN stated that donations could be turned over to him after the meeting but that it was not revealed how much was donated in response to this appeal.

[REDACTED] that after ABBIE HOFFMAN's speech, a question and answer period followed during which HOFFMAN parried questions put to him by some of the students present.

The New York "Daily News" in its March 19, 1970, issue on page 51 contained an article entitled "Abbie, With Quip and Jest, Wows Crowd at St. John's" which stated in part as follows:

"An audience of 700 at St. John's University, Brooklyn, gave an enthusiastic welcome yesterday to a speaker who would seem an unlikely hero for Catholic students -- Abbie Hoffman, one of the defendants in the recent Chicago Seven riot conspiracy trial.

"The radical evoked shouts, applause, cheers and laughter as he quipped about the trial, about Judge Julius J. Hoffman (whom he called 'Julie') about former U.S. attorney Thomas A. Foran, who prosecuted the case, and about Vice-President Spiro Agnew.

"Hoffman, whose once-bushy hair was cut short during his brief stay in jail at the end of the trial but who is letting it grow again, wore rumpled tan pants and a blue corduroy shirt over a tee shirt.

"He spoke for 1½ hours to students packing the gym at St. John's Brooklyn Center.

"'I still don't know what the charges were,' he said 'I kept asking but nobody would tell me'.

"He said the defendants, charged with plotting to

"'Julie' he said, 'ran the court with all the decorum of a candy store'.

"'It wasn't a political trial but an obscenity trial,' Hoffman told yesterday's gathering. 'Tom Foran kept mentioning the "freaking fag revolution" That crack will probably make him the next mayor of Chicago.'

"He mentioned that the Chicago defendants need $300,000 for the appeal by the five including Hoffman of their convictions of crossing state lines to incite a riot.

"'We need a lot of bread (money) so we can examine the jury system and the judicial system' he said."

[REDACTED] that the New York University (NYU) SDS would sponsor a "Free the Panther 21 Rally" at 2:00 p.m. on April 1, 1970, at Washington Place, New York City (NYC).

On April 1, 1970, SAS of the FBI observed approximately 250 people attend a rally outside of 15 Washington Place, NYC, from 2:20 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. in support of the NYC Panther 21.

The speakers included DHARUBA of the NYC Panther 21, ABBIE HOFFMAN and two unidentified people, all of whom spoke in support of freeing the Panther 21.

DHARUBA in his remarks stated, "We'll kill Tricky Dick if he stands in the way of our freedom We'll kill anybody if he stands in the way of our freedom."

ABBIE HOFFMAN spoke for five minutes during which time he spoke in support of the NYC Panther 21, stating that all prisoners are political prisoners.

The "Washington Square Journal", a New York University student newspaper, in its April 2, 1970, issue contained an article entitled "Hoffman, Dharuba Speak at Square Rally; 180 March on Med School, Disrupt Speech" which stated in part as follows:

"Abbie Hoffman of the Chicago 7 and Dharuba of the Panther 21 led 500 students in a fervorous rally yesterday afternoon, demanding release of the imprisoned Panthers and radical reformation of the Bellevue Medical Center.

"Some 50 chanting and jeering radical students later carried their rally to the NYU Medical Center, where they caused the cancellation of a speech on biological warfare after police had kept 180 persons from entering the Medical School complex.

"Staged at Washington Place between Greene and Mercer Streets, the 2 pm rally, closely scrutinized by mounted police and officers atop the apartment building facing the congregation was sponsored by NYU-SDS, the Dec. 4 movement, and NYU radical medical students.

"Hoffman took the platform blowing his nose with a small American flag. 'It's just Old Glory blowing in the wind,' he explained. Hoffman then denounced the Columbia Broadcasting System for electronically blocking out his American flag shirt on the Merv Griffin Show. He also scored the network for refusing to cover a Black Panther press conference in Harlem.

"'I don't care what the (obscene) Supreme Court says,' Hoffman said. 'They're a bunch of honky racists too. We're all a big conspiracy. They're not going to take us all. They're not going to put us all in jail. All trials in America are political trials. All prisoners are political prisoners.'

"'Ninety per cent of the people in jail are black,' Hoffman said. 'Ninety per cent are young. Ninety per cent haven't had a (obscene) trial. Everyone should go to a minimum security jail like NYU... We're all niggers. We're all Viet-cong,' he said.

On March 30, 1970, an announcement appeared in the "Collegian," a Colorado State University (CSU) campus newspaper at Fort Collins, Colorado, indicating that HOFFMAN was scheduled to appear for a speech at 8:00 PM, April 7, 1970, in the student center ballroom at CSU.

On April 7, 1970, an SA of the FBI attended the above-mentioned speech which was held as scheduled. This speech was a series of disjointed statements by HOFFMAN, obviously not well prepared and liberally sprinkled with barnyard obscenities. A major part of his diatribe dealt with critical comments concerning the recent Chicago Antiriot Laws trial where he was a defendant.

[REDACTED] tape recording of this speech made by HOFFMAN before an audience of approximately 1,500 individuals at the student center on the campus of CSU, Fort Collins, Colorado, excerpts from which are set forth as follows:

"I'll have to apologize for not being stoned or having a cold. (here Hoffman pulls out replica of American flag, which is made like a handkerchief and blows his nose on it.) It's just old glory blowing in the wind.

"So getting out of Cook County Jail into the lower middle security penitentiary we call the United States of America is not such a good deal. Bombings, pea shooters, plastic bombs. Better living through chemistry. The Yippies believe in a violation of every law including the law of gravity. What goes up don't necessarily have to come down.

"We believe in banks. We invested in the Bank of America, Santa Barbara. That paid off heavy.

"We have to redefine the language and one of the words we got to reorient ourselves to is the word violence. We have to talk about institutional violence.

And I'll tell you revolution is about life, it's not about dying. You don't die for the revolution, you live for it.

[REDACTED] that the subject arrived in Kansas City, Missouri, by air and was driven by automobile to Lawrence, Kansas. He then went to Potter's Lake at approximately 5:30 PM on April 8, 1970, where he addressed a crowd of several hundred students. Source stated while at Potter's Lake, HOFFMAN did not make a formal address but merely mingled with the students and he is not known to have made any statements which would be construed as inciting to violence.

On April 8, 1970, at 8:00 PM, SAS of the FBI observed the subject address approximately 7,000 individuals, mostly students, at the Allen Field House at Kansas University (KU), Lawrence, Kansas. HOFFMAN's speech contained numerous obscene statements and was strongly critical of his recent trial and conviction in United States District Court in Chicago, Illinois. HOFFMAN was also highly critical of what he termed the establishment in the United States and made critical references to the administration of KU and local authorities in Lawrence, Kansas. HOFFMAN made no statements encouraging persons to incite violence.

[REDACTED] that HOFFMAN reportedly spent the night at 1340 Tennessee Street, in Lawrence, Kansas, which is the residence of DAVID AWBREY, Student Council President.

On April 9, 1970, at 8:00 PM, SAS of the FBI observed ABBOTT HOFFMAN addressing approximately 1,000 individuals, mostly students at Kansas Wesleyan University in Salina, Kansas. At the outset of the speech, HOFFMAN took what appeared to be a handkerchief from his left rear pocket and wiped his nose with this handkerchief. This handkerchief appeared to have red and white stripes with a blue field and what appeared to be possibly white stars. There was an immediate hostile reaction from the crowd and two eggs were thrown at HOFFMAN. The ushers immediately ejected the individuals throwing the eggs and student leaders quieted the crowd. Thereafter, HOFFMAN's speech, although marked with obscenity and derogatory remarks to the establishment, and his recent trail and conviction in Chicago, was considerably less violent than his speech given the previous night in Lawrence, Kansas. No statements were made inciting any individuals to take violent action and at the conclusion of his speech HOFFMAN stated that his main goal in life was to make a revolution in this country without stating how he would do this.

[REDACTED] advised ABBIE HOFFMAN arrived in Salina, Kansas, by air from Kansas City, Missouri, at approximately 5:00 PM, April 9, 1970, and departed from Salina for Kansas City, Missouri, by air at 6:00 AM, on April 10, 1970. He spent the night at 324 East Beloit in Salina, Kansas.

[REDACTED] that there has been considerable ill feeling toward HOFFMAN because of his alleged desecration of the American flag when he wiped his nose with what might have been the American flag, and the county attorney in Salina is considering taking action against HOFFMAN in this regard.

[REDACTED] that ABBOTT H. HOFFMAN and his Attorney, LEONARD I. WEINGLASS, were scheduled to appear and make speeches at Dallas, Texas, on April 11, 1970, in an effort to raise money for the "Chicago Defense Fund". [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] that HOFFMAN, who is one of the defendants in the Chicago conspiracy trial, originally had planned to speak on the above date at Southern Methodist University (SMU), Dallas, Texas, but authorities at that school decided to deny permission for such appearance and speeches.

67D [REDACTED] that in view of this, HOFFMAN and WEINGLASS obtained the rental of the Dallas Fair Park Band Shell from noon to 6:00 PM on April 11, 1970, for a rental fee of $150. [REDACTED] that arrangements for the above speeches and rental of the Band Shell were made by NORMAN JERRY RIFFE and TIMOTHY SCOTT KELLEHER, 3064 Milton Street, Dallas, Texas, who are both members of the Dallas Peace Committee (DPC). [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] that a $2 admission charge was to be made at the Band Shell to defray expenses.

[REDACTED] that HOFFMAN and WEINGLASS arrived in Dallas, Texas at 10:00 AM on April 11, 1970, by way of Texas International Airlines & APPROX Flight 924 from Austin, Texas. [REDACTED] that HOFFMAN and WEINGLASS were accompanied by a SUSAN WILLIAMSON described by the source as a white female, age 21, and who is a student at Kansas University, Lawrence, Kansas. HOFFMAN, WEINGLASS, and WILLIAMSON were met at Love Field Air Terminal, Dallas, Texas, by TIMOTHY SCOTT KELLEHER, who drove them from Love Field to 3117 Live Oak Street, where HOFFMAN and WEINGLASS held a short press conference.

During the press conference, HOFFMAN and WEINGLASS told newspaper reporters that "the February convictions of the Chicago seven will be overturned upon the first appeal to a higher court". WEINGLASS told reporters "Everyone I talk to is convinced legally that we have a reversible case. Every lawyer knows there were errors even after the first day." The above press conference was billed by HOFFMAN as "a fireside chat."

67D [REDACTED] that HOFFMAN and WEINGLASS appeared at the Dallas Fair Park Band Shell at 1:30 PM, on April 11, 1970, at which time both HOFFMAN and WEINGLASS made short speeches of approximately 15 minutes each. During HOFFMAN's speech, he told about how the movement leaders were being oppressed by the "Establishment" and how the people in Dallas just had to get organized into a "conspiracy" and "start doing things". HOFFMAN told the gathering of approximately 175 to 200 persons that the people in the "Movement" were being "picked off one by one" but that a conspiracy consisting of thousands of persons could not be taken. During HOFFMAN's speech, he did not make any inflammatory remarks or statements and at one point, HOFFMAN stated that he did not wish to make any indictable remarks while in Dallas. HOFFMAN, during the short speech, used many obscene words.

The above speeches ended at 2:15 PM, at which time, HOFFMAN, WEINGLASS, and WILLIAMSON were driven from the Fair Park Band Shell by KELLEHER to Dallas Love Field where they boarded Texas International Airlines Flight Number 925 at 4:35 PM, en route to Austin, Texas.

679 [REDACTED] that during the appearance of HOFFMAN and WEINGLASS, an attempt was made to collect $2 from each person attending; however, two side gates were open to the Band Shell and most of the crowd of less than 200 people merely walked in the free gates. A collection was made which totaled approximately $235 and after paying $150 rental for the Band Shell, which only left $85, which money was taken by HOFFMAN and WEINGLASS. According to the source, HOFFMAN was visibly disappointed in the small turn out at the Band Shell at Fair Park and stated that he hoped the next time he came to Dallas it would take more than four plain-clothes men from the Dallas Police Department to handle the gathering. The source stated that upon arrival at Love Field, the airline tickets were purchased with $1 bills which were apparently obtained from the collections at the Band Shell.

[REDACTED] that HOFFMAN was very disappointed at the small turn out at the Band Shell and stated that the people in Dallas "blew it". HOFFMAN originally had asked for $2,000 to appear in Dallas and was very disappointed in receiving less than $100.

[REDACTED] that the subject and LEONARD WEINGLASS held a press conference at approximately 5:45 PM on April 11, 1970, at the University of Texas campus, Austin, Texas. The press conference was restricted to those possessing press credentials. The following are excerpts from that press conference:

In response to a question from a representative of the press regarding HOFFMAN's intentions to speak at the Rice University at Houston, Texas, HOFFMAN made the following statement:

"Well, we definitely plan to go to Rice, burn the Constitution because we think that's what the Board of Trustees is into, and we definitely plan to go on to Rice and speak. I mean we got five years for crossing state lines and most certainly we are not going to be prevented from crossing campus lines."

After commenting regarding the contempt citations during the Chicago Seven Conspiracy Trial, HOFFMAN made the following statement:

"But of course we were in contempt. I mean of the court system, the whole system, and of the law that put us on trial."

In response to a question from the press as to whether or not HOFFMAN might be arrested if he returned to Kansas for blowing his nose on a handkerchief that resembled an American flag, HOFFMAN made the following statement:

It was actually, we were, we were pretty downright upset that John Wayne, Old Duke, stole the Academy Award from us -- I'll tell you (if) there weren't whiskey-drinking old lush heads making those kinds of decisions in the country we would have swept it sure as (obscene). Well, strange trial, we were tried under a law called Anti-Riot Act. It was Strom Thurmond's civil rights contribution passed in April of 1968 in a record ten hours and signed the next day and the day right after they, they began the investigation of us. We had been organizing about three months before that to come to Chicago, so everything we were doing was automatically on that day illegal. Besides tapping our phones, following us around the country was in violation of Supreme Court decision of the Fourth Amendment but, Julie, when it got time for us to make that motion said, 'oh, well, we'll decide that later'. Everything is gonna get decided later in this trial. Well, Strom Thurmond passed, got through his statute says 'People cannot cross state lines with the intention to incite a riot'. A riot is defined by an act or a threat of violence by one or more people in a crowd of three or more. Probably happened six or seven (sixty seven) times in the assembly and about ten or twenty times out at park, that great festival this afternoon.

"(Unintelligible) to teach us dumb Yankees a thing or two. Texas, I hear Chicago's the capital of this town. Well, so there we were, faced with this kind of law. In April, a year and a half later after that little football game we had up there with the Democratic Party and the Blue Boys, Mayor Daley's team, up in Lincoln Park, they indicted us, eight people; that is, Rennie Davis, Tom Hayden, they thought they were " the heads of SDS, but FBI is a little slow sometimes in processing their reports. They indicted Dave Dellinger, been a pacifist for 20 years. To have an anti-war movement you should have at least one pacifist. They indicted me and Jerry trying to run a pig (?) for president. They indicted Bobby Seale cause you gotta have one of them and John Froines, Lee Weiner Lee Weiner cause he's a professor and John Froines cause he's a chemist. I tell you (if) you're gonna have a conspiracy these days, you gotta get yourself a chemist. (Unintelligible) There's one thing conspiracy stands for -- it's better living through chemistry, in more ways than one.

"We teach free education. Well, you can sit in a math class and learn Farmer Jones brings ten apples into Houston, sells them for two cents each, how much profit does he make? Remember? We all learned it that way. Profit (obscene) profit. (Obscene) capitalism. We don't want no money America is the land of the free. My old man told me that means you don't pay. He said that. You don't pay. Try to build a society in which all the goods and services are available to whoever wants them, come who may, available, because they're beautiful. That's the kind of alternative we want. People say, what's the alternative? Here's the answer--destroy it all. They never say that to like Nixon. Hey Dick like after you (obscene) in all the streams you know and ripped down all the forests and things like that and make (unintelligible) out of the rest of the world, what are you gonna put in its place? Nobody ever said that to him. But, right over here in Mississippi they pay Senator Eastland million dollars a year not to plant cotton. Well, we got the alternative - plant Senator Eastland and grow the cotton right over him. He makes (obscene) good manure. Boy that cotton grows high as an elephant's eye. We are the alternative. We sit and listen to the teachers, mayors, and politicians. We get some things to eat, worth nothing We don't know any answers, (obscene). People here, right here, can build a better mousetrap than anyone around. People here can build better mice. We can do anything. Heaven, bring heaven on earth. Some for everybody. How you gonna do it? We gonna have to fight for heaven. We gonna have to fight to stay our and resist (the) dying empire. We have to resist America's children (?) for breakfast program.

N. Festival of Life
Hartford, Connecticut
April 14, 1970

SAS of the FBI observed a Festival of Life conducted by the Anti-Aircraft Conspiracy in Bushnell Park in midtown Hartford, Connecticut from 2:00 PM to 5:30 PM on April 14, 1970.

The affair was attended by about 2,000 persons mostly youths of the "hippie type".

The subject spoke for approximately 20 minutes during which time he stated in part as follows:

"Those guys down in Washington, President Agnew, General Mitchell and Hyiakowa, Martha Raye and all those dumb dinosaurs when imperialism fails abroad they begin to have a policy of fascism at home, and that's where we got to start fighting it. The revolution begins at home, right in our living rooms, right here in Hartford, Connecticut, and down the street in New Haven, Connecticut.

"Right here in New Haven, Connecticut, they're trying to railroad into the electric chair the bravest, meanest, revolutionary in the whole damned country, Bobby G. Scale. We're never going to let that happen. We're never going to let that happen because we know, one thing we learned in our trial. you can't find - I'll give $1,000 bucks to anyone who can name a liberal Senator down in Washington, that opposed that trial. The only reason we got out is because 500,000 of our brothers and sisters constituted themselves as a jury of our peers and voted for us in this only jury in the in the old courtroom that we have left in this dieing America, the streets, and that's how we got out.

CONFIDENTIAL

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"We have to recognize that we are all the laws in the eyes of America and that we are going to resist that dieing pig apparatus for trying to chow us and we are going to stand here and fight here in going into the oven. We are not going to become part of America's 'Children For Breakfast Club'. We are going to resist, we are going to survive and we are going to resist and fight back because we are beautiful and we are a people.

"So what are we going to do? Well, come May Day, we are going to celebrate down at Yale. All of the conspiracy seven are coming to New Haven. We're going to get a higher education at Yale. Yale University is responsible for what's going to happen to Bobby Seale and they're responsible for the slums and the racism that the rest of New Haven is, and we're going to end that because you can't end the war in Vietnam without ending racism here at home. We're going to end that.

"And all across the country - Kansas, California, Maine, New Mexico, there is a vast conspiracy of young people growing and what they are saying is they're not going to accept that dieing civilization that wants to dump garbage in the streams and in our valued life. We reject that. We're not going to accept that kind of civilization. We're going to start a new world. And, they ask us 'Well, after we've destroyed all you crazy minded people, after you've destroyed everything, what are you going to put in it's place?' We're going to put ourselves in it's place; we are the alternative. They only ask that question because they go to dumb ass university.

"I just came from a trial in Chicago, we learned something about that trial, we learned that the Courts - the way fascism comes is through the Courts. If you look back in history, we saw that six million Jews were sent out to the gas chambers - the silent majority, flower children just doing their thing. They were sent out all legal under a campaign of law and order. Just like the ones their trying to push down our throats now. But we learned the way to resist. That is to do what every defendant in history has always wanted to do. It started on a very simple thing - our so-called 'anticks!'"

O. Holy Cross College
Worcester, Massachusetts
April 14, 1970

[REDACTED] that information had been received that the Worcester Junior College, Worcester, Massachusetts, had scheduled the appearance of ABBIE HOFFMAN at Worcester, Massachusetts, on Tuesday, April 14, 1970, at 11:30 AM in the Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA) Gym, 776 Main Street, Worcester. HOFFMAN had been invited by the Student Council of Worcester Junior College.

[REDACTED] that the speech previously scheduled for ABBIE HOFFMAN at the YMCA on April 14, 1970, had been cancelled, as the YMCA would not allow their facilities to be used. However, HOFFMAN's speech was now scheduled for 9:00 PM on April 14, 1970, to be held at the Field House on the campus of Holy Cross College, Worcester, Massachusetts. Said speech was being sponsored by the Revolutionary Student Union of Holy Cross with an admission fee of $1 per person.

On April 14, 1970, SAS of the FBI observed ABBIE HOFFMAN appear at Holy Cross College Field House where he spoke to a crowd of approximately 3,500 people from 8:55 PM to 9:50 PM.

HOFFMAN began his speech with a brief summary of his trial in Chicago, referring to the prosecutor and judge as "tools of the establishment" and stated that any judge would have done the same things that Judge HOFFMAN did.

He also mentioned CHARLES GARRY whom he and the rest of the "conspiracy" had attempted to retain as their attorney. He then urged everyone in attendance to go to New Haven, Connecticut, on May 1, 1970, to attend a rally for BOBBY SEALE. He stated that he and the rest of the defendants in the Chicago trial would be moving to New Haven between the present time and the first of May. He stated that they would stay until the trial was over.

NY 100-161445

HOFFMAN spoke at length about the City of Worcester and cited what he claimed to be examples of the racism and "establishment discriminatory practices" in that city. He also made much of the fact that he was born and raised in Worcester but because of the above-mentioned practices, he did not claim it as his home.

He also spoke in a very derogatory manner about Holy Cross College and mentioned that both TIMOTHY LEARY, whom he referred to as Saint TIMOTHY, and THOMAS FORAN, the United States Attorney in Chicago, attended Holy Cross College. He stated that LEARY was the better of the two because he had dropped out.

He ended his speech with a repeated plea for everyone to attend the trial in New Haven and stated that the young persons six years old and up were the vanguard of the revolution.

P. Skidmore College,
Saratoga Springs, New York
April 16, 1970

On April 16, 1970, at approximately 8:00 PM an SA of the FBI heard ABBOTT HOWARD HOFFMAN deliver a talk at the Athletic Field at Skidmore College, Saratoga Springs, New York.

HOFFMAN, who had no specific topic, talked at length concerning his trial at Chicago, advocating the use of marijuana, ridicule of the Federal Government and the present judicial system.

HOFFMAN urged the audience to congregate in Poughkeepsie, New York during the forthcoming trial of TIMOTHY LEARY on marijuana charges and asked them to form a committee to insure many participants. He stated anyone who smoked marijuana was obligated to show up at LEARY's trial.

HOFFMAN also stated he would be at New Haven, Connecticut on May Day to demand the freedom of BPP Chairman, BOBBY G. SEALE. HOFFMAN urged the audience to go to New Haven to participate in the demand for SEALE's release. He stated that SEALE was being railroaded into the electric chair and that they must not let this happen.

HOFFMAN stated that America wants to devour its youth and that America has a children-for breakfast program. HOFFMAN told the audience that in the eyes of America they are considered outlaws, so they ought to start acting like outlaws. He related that we live in a system that is violent and anything done to destroy this system is an act of love. He further stated that in order to survive they would have to learn to fight. He mentioned that the "hippies" living in communes in Texas, which was recently visited, were arming themselves and receiving instructions in karate and judo.

The afternoon program is free to CUBAT members but there will be a $1.00 charge to the general public. [REDACTED] that the title of HOFFMAN's speech is "Revolution for the Hell Of It" which is the same title as a book he has written.

An SA of the FBI attended HOFFMAN's speech on April 28, 1970, at the Student Activity Building at the State University of New York Agricultural and Technical College, Alfred, New York. HOFFMAN spoke to approximately 450 persons, predominately young people. He started his speech at approximately 3:00 PM. HOFFMAN discussed the Anti-Riot Act and his trial at Chicago, Illinois. HOFFMAN said, "Well, now Bobby Seale's got more problems. The State of Connecticut's trying to railroad him into the electric chair. And we're going up there. This weekend, this weekend, there's going to be a war in this country. A war." He also said, "I hope some of you can get up to New Haven to join us." He also stated, "We will risk anything to see that Bobby Seale doesn't go to the electric chair; we don't care if they bring in the National Guard, we're going."

On April 28, 1970, SAS of the FBI observed the subject address approximately 400 - 500 students at the State University of New York, College of Arts and Science, Geneseo, New York. The subject made derogatory remarks about Judge JULIUS HOFFMAN and the conduct of the trial in Chicago. He stated he was not tried by a jury of his peers and made other statements concerning the judge and the fairness of the trial. He referred to the trial as a political trial. He also urged the students to attend a rally in New Haven, Connecticut on the following weekend to support the Black Panthers. He referred to the University at Geneseo as an establishment unit advising they should do something to change this. He urged them to conduct some action in this direction. He also stated that the government was a polluting government and should be changed through revolution.

Hamilton, New York
April 29, 1970

On April 29, 1970, an SA of the FBI attended a scheduled speech of ABBOTT HOWARD HOFFMAN in the University Memorial Chapel, Colgate University (CU), Hamilton, New York. The subject appeared before group of approximately 1300 hippie-type college and high school students shortly after 8:00 PM.

He opened his presentation by introducing himself as "Abbie Hoffman", requesting first-aid by an alleged self-inflicted knife wound to his right buttock. He dropped his trousers to expose his back side to public view, and dabbed at the alleged wound with what appeared to be a handkerchief sized American flag. He then blew his nose in the "flag" and proceeded with his presentation.

He expressed the opinion that the Chicago 7 trial, a trial held in Federal Court, Chicago, during the fall of 1969, in which he was a defendant, should have won an Academy Award above JOHN WAYNE and emphasized that the trial was not fair because the jury was not a jury of peers.

He said, "The average age of the jurors was 52. And you've got to be a registered voter to be on the jury. It's ironic that people who come to Chicago to protest a political system they don't believe in must be tried by people who believe in that system enough to register to vote".

He defined a conspiracy as "A conspiracy is a very metaphysical thing. It means to breath together".

He called the audiences attention to the scheduled protest march on May 1, 1970, at New Haven, Connecticut, and described it as "The biggest riot the world has ever seen". He directed a question to the audience asking who would come with him to New Haven - his answer was a resounding silence.

His performance included anecdotes about the Chicago 7's trial with references to the presiding Justice Judge JULIUS J. HOFFMAN, comments on religions, slams at higher education, and reflections on the psychological quality of life in the United States.

He said, "I haven't paid my taxes in eight years". He said he liked living in the United States. "I like the nation in which I'm living. The new Nation". Of the trial in Chicago he said that it was not a trial of eight, but of "our dreams, our visions, and our culture; 500,000 brothers and sisters were on trial there".

Referring to the American Civil War President, he said "Abe Lincoln once said, 'If the people shall grow weary of their constitutional right to amend the constitution, they must exert the revolutionary right to dismember and overthrow the government!' If A. Lincoln had said that in Lincoln Park in Chicago, 1968, he would have gotten five years just like the rest of us."

HOFFMAN remarked that "This is such a WASP place - I'm a kike you know. I ain't got nothing against religion you know. Jesus was a brother in the early days. He wore long hair and sandals." HOFFMAN sprinkled his speech liberally with his favorite four letter expletive. "I say the word alot. I learned to use the word in the police station. It's the only word left in the English language that expresses both outrage and love".

He expressed the belief that colleges and universities ought to be teaching guerrilla warfare because "You're going to need it." Instead he said, institutions of higher learning are teaching cynicism and defeatism.

HOFFMAN generally marked the establishment, justice and society and after shortly more than an hour of his comedy political harangue routine, he departed the chapel in a crowd.

67D [REDACTED] that on the arrival of Mr. HOFFMAN at the CU campus, Hamilton, New York, shortly after 8:00 PM, on April 29, 1970, a small group of students, numbering approximately 20, attempted to block him from entering the side entrance to the university Memorial Chapel. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] that although no violence resulted, there was a brief confrontation during which HOFFMAN was alleged to have waved a hunting knife at the students blocking his way in order to gain entrance to the Chapel. [REDACTED] that one of the students who was not identified, telephonically contacted the Hamilton, New York, Police Department, in an effort to obtain a warrant for HOFFMAN's arrest in connection with the blocking incident. The university administration is not in favor of any of its students filing a complaint against HOFFMAN since they do not desire to have any additional publicity to HOFFMAN's visit.

[REDACTED] at this meeting, ABBIE HOFFMAN spoke for about 15 minutes during which time he pointed to the recent events at Kent State University and Cambodia using these as proof of the existence of "revolution".

[REDACTED] that ABBIE HOFFMAN, with reference to Kent State University, said "for everyone of us they kill, we'll kill ten of them". He further said that "we are going on a search and destroy mission to Washington". He compared the war of liberation in South Vietnam with the big (obscene) in Washington. Referring to the Washington Monument, he said, this is a symbol the Government uses in "(obscene) the world". " Abbie Hoffman and attorney William Kunstler, made impassioned pleas for unity to an overflow crowd of 1200 striking students at Eisner and Lubin Auditorium last night.

" 'This is the week,' Hoffman told the crowd, 'This is the week we're going to Washington and place those war criminals under house arrest. We're going for a search and destroy mission to find enemy headquarters.'

"In a relatively mild display of his flamboyant satirical style, Hoffman seemed more serious with his audience than usual. At the end of his performance, he explained that we was 'pooped.'

" 'We don't want to live under a system that makes war on Southeast Asia and black people,' Hoffman said. 'What we've got now is a jailbreak. The biggest (obscene) jail break this country's every seen.'

"Hoffman said that people are 'at war' with the government and that, 'We refuse to participate in the pig empire that devours its children for its breakfast program.'"

"Mr. Hoffman stated he wanted the students to gather in Washington on July 4, American Independence Day. There, he said, a third continental congress would be held to draw up a new country that would be recognized by several countries, including the North Vietnamese government.

"During his speech, Mr. Hoffman took out an American flag from his pocket and wiped his brow with it.

"He called BC a 'vanilla university' since it is mainly white. He further stated that the only way students could keep the school closed in the fall would be to continue these activities through the summer.

"He blamed the Coca-Cola bottling company for the Vietnam War. 'There are vending machines throughout the world and one can even find one in the jungle'. In general, Mr. Hoffman called the Vietnam War 'not the real thing.'

"He urged all of the students to tie up the trunk lines to Washington. 'You must call 202-555-1212, which is directory assistance for the Washington area. When the operator answers, ask her how the war is going. When she asks which war tell her to guess'. Mr. Hoffman stated that the calling should take place today between the hours of 2 p.m. - 5 p.m.

The young lady that was the negotiator and worked out a nice agreement by the way, between all the juries nobody would talk to the press, and then went out and sold the rights of her entire life in view of the trial was in fact connected with the CIA. But we have a number of trials, I just noted that I lost one in Chicago, and I have two coming up in New York and Bobby Seale one of the eight is faced with the electric chair in a framed up charge in New Haven. In response to a statement by the moderator that he was provoking people and instilling fear into a large majority of people in America the subject answered as follows:

"I don't know how much is a majority we never got a chance to test that in a court because we were not tried by a jury of our peers. When the verdict came down we tried by a jury of our peers in the street. And as I said half a million people came out in protest of the trial because they felt basically that they were on trial with us and the whole generation was on trial. We tried by a jury whose average age was 52, the judge I think was 75 which was a young chick compared to like Doctor Spock and their conspiracy trial where their judge was like 86. You know they're very rich millionaires who live in a certain part of town and see a certain kind of reality and when they got to the juryroom two jurors said right off that we should be shot because of the way we dressed. Four people still think that we are innocent but they are liberals. They think that to this day we are innocent, but they say well the law is unconstitutional it'll be decided later. It's just what the good German said."

The New York "Daily News" in its March 28, 1970 issue on page 9 contained an article entitled "Member of the Chicago 7 Is Flagged Down by CBS" which stated in part as follows:

"The CBS television network last night saw fit to erase the colors in a shirt worn by Abbie Hoffman a member of the Chicago 7, on the Merv Griffin show, which was designed after the American Flag. As CBS president Bob Wood explained, this was done to avoid 'legal problems.'

"Wood appeared prior to an after Hoffman's 35 minute interview with Griffin. In his repeated statement he told a nation wide television audience that 'electronic means' were used to blot out the colors 'because of the possibility of violation of law as to disrespect and desecration of the flag and to avoid affronting many of our viewers'. The shirt appeared black on television."

The June 3, 1970, issue of the "New York Post", a New York City daily newspaper, on pages 3 and 65 contained an article entitled "Solid Gold in Haywire Left" which stated in part as follows:

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

CONFIDENTIAL

"Abbie Hoffman and Jerry Rubin Live in two worlds. There's the world of the streets--of Chicago, the Pentagon, of Uncle Sam hats, American flag shirts, Brillo hair--the media manipulative put-on world of the Yippies.

"But less visible, there's another world--of literary agent royalty checks, sales percentages, lecture fees, book and movie contracts.

"For Hoffman, 32 and Rubin, 31, are leading examples of a new discovery by book publishers and movie producers: There's big money in revolution.

"Hoffman's two books already have sold 191,000 copies, have earned more than $50,000 in advances, royalties and resale rights. As an added bonus, his book "Revolution for the Hell of It" was bought by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer to be made into a movie. Hoffman's share in the complicated deal is at least $25,000, with another payment still pending. The Yippie leader also has a piece of the net profits.

"Are you a good businessman, Hoffman was asked? 'Maybe', he replied after a long pause. 'But I'm a better pool hustler'.

"'He talks about advances. He talks about percentages of things. He knows what he's doing.' says Christopher Cerf, the Random House editor who worked on Hoffman's second book, 'Woodstock Nation.'

"The books clearly are aimed at youth. Hoffman and Rubin sell well at college book stores. Hollywood's decision that revolution pay also is based largely on the youth market.

"'It's obvious more films will be made,' says Hillard Elkins, who is producing the movie based on Hoffman's book.

"The literary success of Hoffman and Rubin mixes both Marxes, Karl and Groucho, with a lot of show biz.

CONFIDENTIAL

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"A key person in the beginning was Joyce Johnson, Hoffman's first editor at the Dial Press.

"'I lived in the East Village on St. Marks Place. One could not help become aware of Abbie,' she said. 'Just on the off-chance he might be interested in doing a book, I dropped him a note.'

"Hoffman collected a $2000 advance from Dial. But the book really didn't take shape until just after the Democratic National Convention in 1968.

"'He called me up and said "I've got the book". It was right after Chicago. It suddenly jelled', she recalled. 'He wrote very quickly. He's very facile, very clever. It just pours out of him.'

"Hoffman did most of the writing on his second book in Christopher Cerf's office. Often he lay on the floor, shirt off, scribbling in longhand. A parade of mini-skirted editorial assistants filtered in and out, staring.

"One day Christopher's father, Bennett Cerf, head of Random House, toured the company with a matron. They opened the door and there was Hoffman, barechested, working on the book in his usual position. 'He's not my son. He's not my son,' Cerf exclaimed.

"'Hi, dad,' Hoffman answered with a big grin.

"'Just being Abbie is publicity in itself,' says a spokesman for the Dial Press. 'He makes news. In our office he's courteous. He's trying to figure out ways to promote the book... he knows what he's here for. We know what he's here for.'

"Sometimes when travelling around the country on revolutionary missions, Hoffman will tuck a list of bookstores to be visited into his suitcase. During a recess at the Chicago trial, he hosted a fingerprint party--instead of the traditional autograph party--at a Chicago bookstore.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"'He's better at publicity than anyone else I've met,' Cerf says. Hoffman's lawyer and business agent, Jerry Lefcourt, says: 'He'd probably be worth $250,000 on Madison Av.'

"Where has all the money gone? Certainly some of it has gone for bail. Hoffman and Rubin vehemently deny having sold out to capitalism in the slightest degree. They say, and their agents claim, almost every penny of their earnings flow back into the movement. Lefcourt says that Hoffman's lifestyle has not changed-- and that the Yippie leader now has to worry about his income taxes.

"'He isn't rich,' adds Lefcourt.

"What of the future? Hoffman is writing two more books. One is called 'Steal This Book' and is a manual of how to get things free in America. There are also plans to revive the Yippies as a political party this fall. Rubin and Hoffman want to start their own publishing house.

"The two revolutionaries paused the other day amid all the activities to reflect on themselves as authors.

"'I have a disdain for my own writing. I don't view myself as an author,' Hoffman said. 'I just exert a lot of energy. Sometimes I write it down on paper.'

"He thought a minute.

"'It's embarrassing,' he said. 'You try to overthrow the government and end up on the best-seller list.'"

670 [REDACTED] made available Liberation News Service, News Packet Number 262, dated June 6, 1970. In this news packet there appears an item by the subject entitled "Chicago: Two Years After" which states in part as follows concerning a new introduction for the subject's book "Revolution For The Hell Of It" to be published in September (1970), by Pocket Books, Incorporated

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

CONFIDENTIAL

"In Revolution for the Hell of It, I wrote that within six months it would be outdated. Thus, now two years after the event of Chicago and the thoughts expressed in the book, some comments seem in order. I read the book now as one thumbs through a family scrapbook, as say Charlie Chaplin felt when years later he was asked to narrate the silent film 'Gold Rush' and could not help but refer to himself as 'the little fellow.'

"Two years in a revolution, even a revolution for the hell of it, is a long time. The Lower East Side was O.D.'ed on heroin. People's Park was born by us and crushed by them. Woodstock Nation was born and diluted by the celluloid world of hip capitalism. The Black Panthers have emerged as the most revolutionary force in the land. The Weathermen have unleashed the rage inside each yippie, and yippies have turned on the Weathermen to digging culture. A new breed of stoned revolutionary communists sneak around the country blowing pot and blowing up pig sties. Women's Liberation, more than any other movement to emerge during the last two years, forces us to examine our style of living. To enter the 21st century, to have revolution in our lifetime, male supremacy must be smashed, including the chauvinism in this book. A militant Gay Liberation Front has taught us that our stereotypes of masculinity were molded by the same enemies of life that drove us out of Lincoln Park. The words 'chick' and 'fag' and the deep rooted attitudes they imply must be purged from the New Nation. Cultural Revolution means a disavowal of the values; all values held by our parents who inhabit and sustain the decaying institutions of a dying Pig Empire.

"More still has happened. An ecology movement has taught us to be hysterically impatient in our determination to smash the state before it poisons the planet. Revolution is the festival of the oppressed said Lenin, but dancing on broken glass or on the concrete of a world parking lot would be the fulfillment of empty dreams.

"Then there is the WAR. Their war; the red, white and blue war to make the world safe from the yellow communist devils. Safe for us? (Obscene)! Safe for Gulf Oil Slicks, Dupont Napalm-Freaks, Reynolds Tobacco Cancer, Bob Hopeless and his Kulture of Greed, Yale Heroin Dispensaries and Howard Johnson's 32 flavors (all of which, incidentally, turn out to be vanilla.)

"It is true that our revolution must be born out of joy, but it's going to take more than some neat pranks to radically change this society. The toy gun on the cover has become a real gun. Never again will I spell America with a 'c', for in the eyes of Amerika we have all been declared outlaws. An armed struggle is not only inevitable, it is happening, and the yippies are part of that.

"Folks will mumble, 'Abbie sure has lost his sense of humor' and stuff like that, but they never understood Revolution for the Hell of It. Ponko liberals never understand, except as observing critics. Mao wrote that to understand revolution, one must participate. If you want to know the taste of a pear, you must change the pear by eating it yourself. This book was written with treason in my heart. It was written with the knowledge that the institutions and values of imperialism, racism, and capitalism and the protestant ethic do not allow young people to experience authentic liberation. It was written with the intention of making fun subversive. And finally, make no mistake about it, it was written with the hope of destroying Amerika. Yippie!"

VI. MISCELLANEOUS

The "New York Post" in its March 13, 1970, issue on page 19, contained an article entitled "War Foes Split on Priorities". This article stated that the subject and JERRY RUBIN appeared at the end of the "1970 Senators For Peace and New Priorities" rally held at Madison Square Garden, New York City on the evening of March 12, 1970.

"The Village Voice", a New York City weekly newspaper, in its March 12, 1970, issue on page 55, sets forth an article by ANDREW SARRIS entitled, "Films in Focus", which states in part as follows:

"FOR THE BENEFIT of readers who wish to be kept informed on where it's at, the following press release dated March 3, 1970, is reprinted in its entirety: 'Abbie Hoffman announced this morning (March 3) that he and other defendants in the Chicago conspiracy trial will attempt to offset legal expenses by making their own feature film of the trial.'

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"Speaking on Alex Bennett's WMCA radio show, Hoffman said the film will be called "The Seditious Movie" ("because we're not allowed to make seditious speeches"). It will star all seven defendants, their lawyers, and a number of "sympathetic" celebrities including Dustin Hoffman (no relation), he said.

"The Yippie leader revealed that he sent a telegram to Judge Julius Hoffman (also no relation) yesterday afternoon offering the judge $100,000 to play himself in the film. The prosecutor and assistant prosecutor have also been offered money to appear.

"The picture will be directed by Nick Ray ("Rebel Without a Cause"), Hoffman (Abbie, that is) and Jerry Rubin, Abbie Hoffman said. It will be filmed this spring in New York on a studio set that will be an exact replica of the Chicago courtroom where the trial took place."

"The New York Times" a New York City daily newspaper, in its April 25, 1970, issue on page 17, contained an article entitled "Abbie Hoffman Barred From White House Tea". This article which is datelined "Washington, April 24" stated as follows:

"Abbie Hoffman, the Yippie leader who was a defendant in the Chicago Seven trial was turned away from the White House today when he tried to attend a tea given by Tricia Nixon.

"He was accompanying Grace Slick of the Jefferson Airplane, a rock group. Miss Slick had been invited to the event, which was given for alumnae of Finch College.

"Mr. Hoffman, conservatively dressed and without his beard, said he was Miss Slick's 'bodyguard and escort.' but a White House Policeman would not permit him to enter the grounds, saying, 'This is strictly for females.'

"Mr. Hoffman brought out a black flag emblazoned with a multicolored marijuana leaf and hung it on the White House gate. It was quickly removed by a White House policeman. The singer and Mr. Hoffman ran across the street and were driven away by a member of the Jefferson Airplane."

BLACK PANTHER PARTY
Also Known As
Black Panther Party for Self-Defense

According to its official newspaper, the Black Panther Party (BPP) was started during December, 1966, in Oakland, California, to organize black people so they can take control of the life, politics and the destiny of the black community. It was organized by BOBBY SEALE, BPP Chairman, and HUEY P. NEWTON, BPP Minister of Defense, NEWTON was sentenced in 1968 to serve 2 to 15 years after being convicted of manslaughter in connection with the killing of an Oakland police officer.

The official newspaper, "The Black Panther", which further describes itself as the "Black Community News Service", states that the BPP advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics in its revolutionary program to end oppression of the black people. Residents of the black community are urged to arm themselves against the police who are consistently referred to in the publication as "pigs" who should be killed.

"The Black Panther" issue of September 7, 1968, contains an editorial by BPP Minister of Education, GEORGE MASON MURRAY, which ends with the following:

"Black men. Black people, colored persons of America, revolt everywhere! Arm yourselves. The only culture worth keeping is a revolutionary culture. Change. Freedom everywhere. Dynamite! Black Power. Use the gun. Kill the pigs everywhere."

Included in the introduction to an article appearing in the October 5, 1968, edition of "The Black Panther" is the statement, "...we will not dissent from American Government. We will overthrow it."

Issues of "The Black Panther" regularly contain quotations from the writings of Chairman MAO Tse-tung of the People's Republic of China and feature MAO's statement that "political power grows out of the barrel of a gun."

The national headquarters of the BPP is located at 3106 Shattuck Avenue, Berkeley, California. Branches have been established at various locations throughout the United States.

1.LIBERATION MAGAZINE

"Liberation" Magazine (LM) is self-described as an independent monthly with offices at 339 Lafayette Street, New York, New York. A "Statement of Ownership, Management and Circulation" was published in the November, 1968 issue. It listed the Publisher and Editor of the magazine as DAVE DELLINGER. The circulation was given as 10,000.

The following comments appeared in a leaflet distributed by LM in May, 1968:

"Since its inception in 1956, Liberation has played an active and creative role in the growth of the new radicalism in the United States. From civil rights to black liberation, from 'ban the bomb' to the movement to end the war in Vietnam, Liberation has been vital. Its radical critique of American society and its emphasis on democratic and direct action against the inequalities and injustice of our present social structure have inspired radicals, young and old."

"In addition, Liberation will continue to carry articles and discussions written by and to community organizers, student and non-student activists, educators, economists and social scientists - of interest to anybody concerned with building a radical and nonviolent movement that will bring a fundamental change to the existing order."

67D [REDACTED] that during a speech in New York, New York, on May 10, 1963, DAVE DELLINGER identified himself as a pacifist. He stated it was necessary to abolish the cause of war, which was Capitalism. He advocated a Communist society and said, "I am a Communist," but further stated he was not a Soviet type Communist.

1.NATIONAL EMERGENCY CIVIL LIBERTIES COMMITTEE, Formerly Known As Emergency Civil Liberties Committee

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" of December 1, 1961, by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., describes the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (ECLC) as an organization whose avowed purpose is to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities. It stated the ECLC was established in 1951, and "although representing itself as a non-Communist group, actually operates as a front for the Communist Party."

"The New York Times" issue of April 1, 1968, contained an article reflecting the ECLC was changing its name to the National ECLC (NECLC) "to reflect our determination to develop a vital national civil liberties organization in all 50 states as rapidly as possible."

The "Newark Sunday News" of Newark, New Jersey, issue of April 20, 1969, contained an article showing the NECLC, of 25 East 26th Street, New York, New York, operates from its office an anti-war legal help organization for draft-age men, reservists and those on active duty.

1.NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD

The Committee on Un-American Activities, House report 3123, September 21, 1950, cites the National Lawyers Guild (NLG) as a Communist front which is the foremost legal bulwark of the Communist Party (CP) and has never failed to rally to the legal defense of the CP and individual members thereof, including known espionage agents.

67D [REDACTED] that from the speeches made and the workshops and panel discussions held at a recent Midwest Conference of the NLG, it clearly appeared that the NLG is being developed from a "complacent, old left type organization" into a strong active supporter of the "new left".

[REDACTED] that the President of the NLG spoke at a NLG banquet held in New York City on April 12, 1969, stating that the NLG has organized young people to work in a radical movement which is seeking to destroy a corrupt, violent society and replace it with one which will benefit all.

[REDACTED] that the President of the New York Chapter of the NLG spoke at the above banquet stating that the purpose of the NLG is to advance the "social revolution" taking place in this country. In furtherance of this purpose, the NLG has established Student Guild Chapters and given counsel to draft resisters and military personnel seeking peace.

As of July 23, 1969, the NLG National Office was located at 5 Beekman Street, New York, New York.

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY (PLP)

The "New York Times" city edition Tuesday, April 20, 1965, Page 27, reported that a new party of "revolutionary socialism" was formally founded on April 18, 1965, under the name of the PLP, which had been known as the Progressive Labor Movement.

According to the article, "The Progressive Labor Movement was founded in 1962, by MILTON ROSEN and MORTIMER SCHEER after they were expelled from the Communist Party of the United States for assertedly following the Chinese Communist line."

67D [REDACTED] that the PLP held its Second National Convention in New York City, May 31, to June 2, 1968, at which time the PLP reasserted its objective of the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism. This is to be accomplished through the Party's overall revolutionary strategy of raising the consciousness of the people and helping to provide ideological leadership in the working class struggle for state power.

[REDACTED] that at the Second National Convention, MILTON ROSEN was unanimously re-elected National Chairman of the PLP and LEVI LAUB, FRED JEROME, JARED ISRAEL, WILLIAM EPTON, JACOB ROSEN, JEFFREY GORDON and WALTER LINDER were elected as the National Committee to lead the PLP until the next convention.

The PLP publishes "Progressive Labor", a bimonthly magazine; "World Revolution", a quarterly periodical; and "Challenge-Desafio", a monthly newspaper.

The April, 1969, issue of "Challenge-Desafio", sets forth that "Challenge is dedicated to the peoples fight for a new way of life-where the working men and women control their own homes and factories; where they themselves make up the entire government on every level and control the schools, courts, police and all institutions which are now used to control them."

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

67D [REDACTED] that the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as presently regarded, came into being at a founding convention held June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy" the line of the national leadership has revealed a growing Marxist-Leninist adherence which currently calls for the building of a revolutionary youth movement. Concurrently, the program of SDS has evolved from civil rights struggles to an anti-Vietnam war stance to an advocacy of a militant anti-imperialist position. China, Vietnam and Cuba are regarded as the leaders of worldwide struggles against United States imperialism whereas the Soviet Union is held to be revisionist and also imperialist.

At the June, 1969, SDS National Convention, Progressive Labor Party (PLP) forces in the organization were expelled. As a result, the National Office (NO) group maintained its National Headquarters at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, and the PLP faction set up headquarters in Cambridge, Massachusetts. This headquarters subsequently moved to Boston. Each group elected its own national officers, which include three national secretaries and a National Interim Committee of eight. Both the NO forces and the PLP forces claim to be the true SDS. Both groups also print their versions of "New Left Notes" which sets forth the line and the program of the particular faction. The NO version of "New Left Notes" was recently printed under the title "The Fire Next Time" to achieve a broader mass appeal.

Two major factions have developed internally within the NO group, namely, the Weatherman or Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM) I faction, and the RYM II faction. Weatherman is action-oriented upholding CASTRO's position that the duty of revolutionaries is to make revolution. Weatherman is regarded by RYM II as an adventuristic, elitist faction which denies the historical role of the working class as the base for revolution. RYM II maintains that revolution, although desired, is not possible under present conditions, hence emphasizes organizing and raising the political consciousness of the working class upon whom they feel successful revolution depends. Although disclaiming control and domination by the Communist Party, USA, leaders in these two factions have in the past proclaimed themselves to be communists and to follow the precepts of a Marxist-Leninist philosophy, along pro-Chinese communist lines.

67D [REDACTED] that the PLP faction, which is more commonly known as the Worker Student Alliance, is dominated and controlled by members of the PLP, who are required to identify themselves with the pro-Chinese Marxist-Leninist philosophy of the PLP. They advocate that an alliance between workers and students is vital to the bringing about of a revolution in the United States.

SDS regions and university and college chapters, although operating under the outlines of the SDS National Constitution, are autonomous in nature and free to carry out independent policy reflective of local conditions. Because of this autonomy internal struggles reflecting the major factional interests of SDS have occurred at the chapter level since the beginning of the 1969-70 school year.

A characterization of the PLP is attached.

WORKERS WORLD PARTY

67D [REDACTED] that on February 12, 1959, a Socialist Workers Party (SWP) minority group under the leadership of National Committee member SAM BALLAN, split from the SWP.

[REDACTED] this minority group, referred to as the Marcyites, after many years of program and policy differences on varied issues concerning tactics and interpretation of political events, split from the SWP on the grounds that the Party was liquidating itself by departing from the Marxist precepts of LEON TROTSKY and retreating from the fight for the world Socialist revolution. The final issue which ultimately forced the split was the minority's opposition to the SWP regroupment policy which involved cooperation with the Communist Party (CP) periphery-individuals characterized by the minority as petty-bourgeois.

The minority program, according to [REDACTED] advocated unconditional defense of the Soviet Union and has as its goal the building of a revolutionary party with a complete proletarian orientation for the purpose of overthrowing capitalism in the United States and throughout the world.

[REDACTED] that this minority group had chosen the name Workers World Party.

[REDACTED] that the Workers World Party, which maintains headquarters at 46 West 21st Street, New York, New York, supports the People's Republic of China in its ideological dispute with the Soviet Union.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On April 24, 1970, Mrs. Grace W. Slick, one of 350 alumnae of Finch College invited to a ladies tea at the White House on that date, attempted to bring as her guest Abbott Hoffman, one of the "Chicago 7".

The June 2, 1970, issue of "The East Village Other", a weekly hippie type newspaper published in New York City, contained an article entitled "Abbie and Anita Rap with Grace and Paul" which stated in part that Grace Slick was a lead singer with the "Jefferson Airplane", a nationally known rock and roll group.

The article, dealing with the impact of rock and roll on the cultural scene and its connections with the revolutionary youth movement in the United States, quoted Slick as stating, "I prefer not to kill people, but I'd like to destroy as much property as possible".

[REDACTED] that Grace Barnett Wing was born October 30, 1939, at Highland Park, Illinois. She stated Wing attended Castilleja School, Palo Alto, California, from 1955 to 1957 prior to attending Finch College.

While attending Castilleja, Wing was an impulsive, thoughtless, rather wild, irresponsible young lady and was subjected to disciplinary action during her senior year because of her escapades. There was no evidence of any interest in politics or social issues when she was at Castilleja and was very self-centered and concerned only with herself. She was inclined to make a spectacle of herself. Wing's parents were very conservative and somewhat disenchanted with their daughter.

ABBOTT HOWARD HOFFMAN

Also known as Abbie Hoffman, Abby Digger,
Abbe Hoffman, Abbey Hoffman, Abby Hoffman,
Abner Hoffman

Hoffman attended Brandeis University, Waltham, Massachusetts, from September, 1955, to June, 1959, when he received an A. B. degree. He was admitted to Brandeis from Worcester Academy, Worcester, Massachusetts.

Hoffman is not acceptable for military service due to bronchial asthma and defective vision.

An undated throw-away on the letterhead of Liberation News Service, 3 Thomas Circle, N.W., Washington, D. C., was captioned "An Announcement: The Youth International Party (Or: YIP) is Born." This throw-away contained a press release datelined January 16, 1968, at New York stating that Abbe Hoffman was one of the initial founders of the YIP, a political youth organization.

In May, 1968, Hoffman appeared on the Chicago CBS television program "At Random" and stated he had participated in the recent Columbia University uprisings in New York. At one point he was asked, "Does anyone believe that the communist element was in any way behind the recent student uprising around the country?" Hoffman asked what was meant by a communist, and the moderator replied by using the standard definition, "Anyone who advocates the overthrow of the U. S. Government." Hoffman then stated, "In that case, I am a communist." He was then asked if he was in favor of the overthrow of the U.S. Government and replied that he was in favor of its overthrow by any means possible.

The "New York Post," a New York City daily newspaper, in its issue of September 5, 1968, sets forth an article entitled "As a Yippie Sees Chicago: A Victory," in which the Yippies are referred to as "the turned-on, psyched-up wing of the peace movement." The article quotes Hoffman as stating, with reference to the demonstrations in Chicago during the Democratic Convention in August, 1968: "They called us hard core anarchists with plots to overthrow the government. Well, that's not a secret. That's always been the case. What's the big deal?"

Enclosure to airtel to Legat, Ottawa, dated 8/26/70 captioned "Abbott Howard Hoffman, aka, SM-ANA."

Abbott Howard Hoffman

On September 18, 1968, during a press conference in Chicago, Hoffman stated he does not need money, does not work, and does not ever plan to work because he is a passive revolutionary artist. He observed everything is free, "who needs money?" He reported he is in the process of completely redeveloping New York City and has things well under way. From 14th Avenue on he said things are well organized, "free sex, free narcotics, the world is a ball."

"The New York Times" issue of October 11, 1968, carried an article captioned "A 15-Man Inquiry in Poverty Fraud Voted by Council," which stated that on October 10, 1968, the City Council of New York City had voted unanimously to create a special 15-member committee to investigate the Human Resources Administration (HRA), which supervises the city's $1.5 billion welfare and anti-poverty program. HRA was charged with giving funds to ineligible and illegally sending Yippies to Chicago during the Democratic National Convention (DNC) in August, 1968. One paragraph of the article stated, "Abbie Hoffman, a Yippie leader and a prominent figure in violent Chicago demonstrations, was a $40-a-day HRA consultant to the Free Store for part of the summer."

Among Hoffman's extensive arrests are the following:

In April, 1968, he was arrested in connection with uprisings at Columbia University, New York City. He paid a $50 fine after pleading guilty to criminal trespass on July 22, 1970.

In August, 1968, he was arrested in connection with disturbances at the DNC in Chicago, Illinois. As a result, he was sentenced on February 14, 1970, to eight months and 14 days on 24 counts of contempt of court for his actions during the Antiriot Law trial arising out of these disturbances. On February 20, 1970, he was sentenced to five years and fined $5,000, to run concurrently with the contempt sentence. On February 28, 1970, he was released on $25,000 bond and is awaiting appeal.

In March, 1969, he was arrested in New York City for illegal possession of weapons. However, this case was dismissed.

In April, 1969, he was arrested during a demonstration at New York City Criminal Courts Building in support of 21 Black Panther Party members who were previously arrested by the New York City Police Department. On July 22, 1970, he paid a fine of $1,000 after pleading guilty to resisting arrest during this demonstration.
