Bayard Rustin

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1, column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the CP USA held in New York City, on February 9-11, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958, and the YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Internal Security - C

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on May 1, 1968, that on that date, Stanley Levison and Ben Hooks of Memphis, Tennessee, a member of the Executive Board of the SCLC, discussed making the SCLC a membership organization. Levison felt that they did not have to go in for branches that, at the present time, particularly in churches, it is possible to launch a campaign around the slogan "A Million to Replace One". Levison also noted that the SCLC has more entry into labor unions than any other civil rights organization. Levison recalled that he had told Martin Luther King, Jr. that the SCLC never used the strength they have in the labor movement. He said that in the Black locals of the Teamsters Union alone they could get thousands of memberships with the cooperation of the union. He added that the National Vice President of the Packing House Workers Union in Chicago, a Negro, told Andrew Young (Executive Vice President of the SCLC) that they would do "these kind of things" with the SCLC, such as raising money, provided the SCLC backed up the Black members in those unions. *

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, learned on May 2, 1968, that, on that date Stanley Levison was in contact with one Cerillo (ph) whom the source did not know but who was known to be in Memphis, Tennessee, in connection with SCLC activity. Cerillo told Levison that "we" (SCLC) have been doing great things nationally, that he had a Tag (ph) Day on April 27, 1968, in Chicago, which paid off "tenfold", and that he recently spoke to Sammy Davis, Jr., who is in Chicago with the play "Golden Boy". He said Davis was going to give "us" (the SCLC) his May 20th proceeds. Cerillo noted further that they have contacted schools "and all that" and they (the schools) are supposed to have funds. In addition, he said that on Sunday (May 5, 1968), the Universities of Chicago and Northwestern would be having programs "for us".

Levison commented that he has been working on a meeting to be held at Randall's Island Stadium, New York City. He explained that one of the major record companies for rock and roll is going to cooperate with the Black Disc Jockeys Association in putting on a big affair at Randall's Island for about 25,000 people. He said it is hoped to raise between one hundred and one hundred fifty thousand dollars which "we" (the SCLC) have agreed to divide with the Black Disc Jockeys Association, one third - two thirds.

Levison referred to a form letter he had received from Atlanta from one J. Oscar McCloud (ph) in which McCloud is promoting a memorial portrait of Martin Luther King to be sold for one dollar. Levison said that he believes this portrait could be used as a membership card by the SCLC and that they should not, therefore, be selling it because they would be competing with themselves. Levison said he did not believe the SCLC had endorsed any such pictures and inquired as to McCloud's identity. B

Cerillo stated that McCloud is a new fellow he had just read about and whom the SCLC had in a fund-raising situation. Cerillo said he understood that Levison had a meeting in Atlanta at which it was agreed that anything such as sales, requiring an endorsement of the SCLC, must be approved by a committee of which Levison is a member.

Levison stated that this was true and agreed with Cerillo that McCloud has no authority to confirm or deny any photograph. Levison added that he was also upset because McCloud, on the form letter, described himself as the National Director of the Fund Raising Campaign. Levison told Cerillo that this could not be true "if you are the Treasurer and don't know about it." Levison added that he has been involved in national fund raising all these years and that he knows nothing about what McCloud is doing. He said McCloud has taken on a title which he should not take on and that if the (SCLC) Executive Staff gave it to him they should not have done it. Levison added that it will complicate matters because "we're" working on certain things that have to do with fund-raising in New York and "you're working on things".

Levison said if people should suddenly point out that the national fund raiser is McCloud, he and Cerillo will look foolish. He counseled that Cerillo "as the top financial officer" should be the one to take this question up.

HE HAD TALKED WITH ABERNATHY TWO HOURS BEFORE AFTER TALKING TO ANDY YOUNG (EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF SCLC). HE SAID YOUNG TOOK THE POSITION THAT ABERNATHY ONLY LISTENS TO PEOPLE WHO FLATTER HIM AND NOT PERSONS WHO HAVE CRITICISM. LEVISON SAID HE TOLD YOUNG THAT IF IT IS POINTED OUT TO ABERNATHY THAT CERTAIN WEAKNESSES CAN KILL HIM, HE IS SMART ENOUGH TO LISTEN. LEVISON SAID HE SEES RIDICULE ARISING IN THE PRESS BECAUSE OF INEFFICIENCY OF THE SCLC WHICH WILL BE A REFLECTION ON ABERNATHY. HE SAID HE TOLD YOUNG THAT IF HE AND YOUNG TALK TO ABERNATHY THAT ABERNATHY KNOWS THEY ARE THE PEOPLE WHO HAVE ALWAYS DELIVERED AND WILL LISTEN. LEVISON STATED HE THEN TALKED TO ABERNATHY AND TOLD HIM HE WAS GOING TO BE THE OBJECT OF RIDICULE WHICH HAD ALREADY BEGUN, THAT THE PRESS HAS BEEN NICE TO HIM BUT IF HE DOES NOT ORGANIZE THE MAY THIRTY (POOR PEOPLE'S CAMPAIGN (PPC) MASS GATHERING IN WASHINGTON, DC) PROPERLY, HE WILL BE ATTACKED. LEVISON SAID HE RECOMMENDED THAT WYATT (WALKER FORMER SCLC OFFICIAL) WOULD BE A KEY MAN TO SET UP APPARATUS IN NEW YORK FOR THE PPC BECAUSE NEW YORK HAS TO PROVIDE MORE THAN HALF THE PEOPLE FOR THE WASHINGTON (MAY THIRTY) EVENT, AND ABERNATHY AGREED. CORETTA SAID IT IS IMPORTANT TO GET THROUGH MAY THIRTY BUT IT IS MORE IMPORTANT WHAT THEY DO AFTERWARD. SHE SAID ABERNATHY

HAS DONE NOTHING ABOUT AN SCLC STRUCTURE TO CARRY ON AND THAT SOME OF THE MEN AROUND ABERNATHY FEEL HE IS NOT USING THEM.
SHE STATED SHE EXPRESSED HER CONCERN ABOUT THE FUTURE OF SCLC
TO ABERNATHY THAT SHE FELT IT IS IMPORTANT FOR HIM TO COMMUNICATE
WITH HIS TOP LEADERSHIP AS MUCH AS POSSIBLE. LEVISON
AND CORETTA DISCUSSED USING JESSE JACKSON'S (SCLC STAFF MEMBER) ABILITY TO THE BENEFIT OF SCLC. LEVISON STATED THAT DECISIONS SHOULD BE MADE BY THE TOP LEADERSHIP
COLLECTIVELY. CORETTA AGREED AND NOTED IF ABERNATHY WILL USE
PEOPLE AROUND HIM COLLECTIVELY, HE WILL BE EFFECTIVE AND THE SCLC CAN GO ON WITHOUT BEING HAMPERED BY "ALL THE POWER PLAYS
THAT ARE GOING TO COME." LEVISON SAID THAT THEY MUST BE FRANK AND HONEST IN DEALING WITH PEOPLE'S SHORTCOMINGS. LEVISON FELT
THE MOST CORRECT TYPE OF LEADERSHIP WOULD HAVE BEEN A COLLECTIVE LEADERSHIP. LEVISON AND CORETTA DISCUSSED HER OPINION THAT THE SCLC SHOULD HAVE A STRONG PUBLIC RELATIONS DEPARTMENT. LEVISON
DID NOT AGREE. THEY ALSO DISCUSSED FUTURE FINANCING OF THE SCLC.
LEVISON SAID HE HAS NO CLEAR IDEA OF WHAT THE SOURCES OF FUNDS WILL BE BY THE FALL OF NINETEEN SIXTYEIGHT.

2/24/68

On this date CLARENCE JONES and STANLEY LEVISON discussed the Poor People's Campaign (PPC) sponsored by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). JONES mentioned that he had some material from a minister named KIRKPATRICK called a Declaration of Principle which dealt with the PPC. He said KIRKPATRICK was distributing the material to churches. LEVISON told him to send the material to HARRY WACHTEL.

LEVISON mentioned an 80,000 mailing of a fund appeal letter which he said was running ahead of last years. He said it was sent to a middle-class intellectual group.

This information was forwarded to the Bureau and interested offices by airtel and LHM dated 2/27/68, and captioned, "WASHINGTON SPRING PROJECT - RACIAL MATTERS".

3/4/68

On this date, STANLEY LEVISON furnished DORA MC DONALD, MARTIN LUTHER KING's Secretary with a statement for KING's press conference scheduled for 3/4/68. In this statement LEVISON praised the findings of the National Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders, mentioned the PPC as a means of solving the problems uncovered by the commission, and said the highest patriotism demands an end to the Vietnam war.

This information was furnished the Bureau and Atlanta by airtel and LHM dated 3/4/68, and captioned "WASHINGTON SPRING PROJECT - RACIAL MATTERS".

3/19/68

On this date LEVISON and HARRY WACHTEL discussed the PPC. LEVISON said that the National Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy and the Washington Jewish Community Council had endorsed the PPC. LEVISON also mentioned that the SCLC was planning on putting up "shanty towns" in Washington, .D.C (to house the PPC participants) and that plans were underway to bring a cabin which people live in, in Mississippi, to Washington and donate it to the Smithsonian Institution as a publicity stunt for the PPC.

This information was furnished to the Bureau and Atlanta by airtel and LHM dated 3/20/68, captioned "WASHINGTON SPRING PROJECT - RACIAL MATTERS".

3/26/68

On this date LEVISON discussed with MARTIN LUTHER KING what KING's position should be to a proposed April, 1968, College Presidential Poll. LEVISON suggested that KING's position should be that he did not want to be included as a potential candidate because his candidates are those who oppose the Vietnam war and who support the principles of the Presidential Commission on Civil Disorders. LEVISON said the only two candidates who reflect these views were Senators KENNEDY and MC CARTHY. LEVISON said, if KING was a candidate, it could split the college poll and result in President JOHNSON being the winner. They agreed that the only possibility of stopping JOHNSON would be with KENNEDY.

This information was furnished the Bureau and Atlanta by airtel and LHM dated 3/27/68, captioned "MARTIN LUTHER KING, Jr. SM - C".

3/29/68

On this date, LEVISON and MARTIN LUTHER KING discussed the position in which KING found himself as a result of the violence that occurred following the march he led through downtown Memphis in support of the striking garbage men on 3/28/68. KING was discouraged and felt the image of the SCLC had been hurt and that the PPC was in trouble. KING was fearful for the future of his non-violent philosophy, his own image and leadership.

LEVISON attempted to dissuade KING that his reasoning was incorrect, that KING could not get or expect 100% adherence to his philosophy of non-violence. He counseled that as far as the PPC is concerned KING can say that he could control his followers and was not undertaking to control everyone else.

KING was not persuaded and they agreed to discuss the matter at a meeting in Atlanta on 3/30/68.

On this date, LEVISON and CORETTA KING, wife of MARTIN LUTHER KING, discussed the new head of the SCLC, RALPH ABERNATHY. LEVISON said he had advised ABERNATHY not to appear on the TV program, "Face The Nation" because he felt ABERNATHY would be gambling his reputation. He said ABERNATHY should put off any appearances until just before the PPC and that ABERNATHY acknowledged that he needed to study up on current legislation and political facts.

LEVISON told CORETTA that he had checked with DAVE DELLINGER, National Director, National Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam and that he, LEVISON, felt it was alright for her to appear on the program at the anti-Vietnam war rally in NYC on 4/27/68. He said it was alright for her to participate in the Mother's March on May 12 in connection with the PPC.

This information was furnished the Bureau and interested offices by airtel and LHM dated 4/18/68, captioned "MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., SCLC - RACIAL MATTERS".

On 4/19/68, LEVISON and one FRANK REISMAN (ph), Head of an institute for new careers for Negroes and STANLEY LEVISON discussed a conference his group and the SCLC were sponsoring in NYC on 4/22/68. REISMAN said the conference had to come up with some legislative strategy and a program.

LEVISON told YOUNG the same day that the SCLC should seek Negro membership using a slogan "A Million to Replace One".

On 4/21/68, WALTER FAUNTROY, Washington, D.C. representative of the SCLC, accepted the Chairmanship of the meeting to be held 4/22/68, at the Carnegie International Center, NYC, the purpose of which is to formulate a legislative program for the PPC. ANDREW YOUNG and RALPH ABERNATHY were to attend this conference.

This information was furnished to the Bureau and interested offices by airtel and LHM dated 4/23/68, captioned, "MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.; SCLC - RACIAL MATTERS".

5/4/68

On this date, WILLIAM RUTHERFORD, Executive Director of the SCLC and STANLEY LEVISON discussed the PPC. RUTHERFORD was critical of the lack of cooperation for the PPC on the part of the union with which the striking garbage men in Memphis are affiliated and LEVISON agreed with him.

LEVISON was critical of ANDREW YOUNG for not having contacted the Field Foundation which had earmarked $275,000.00 (apparently for civil rights causes and the SCLC in particular).

LEVISON also was critical of the SCLC leadership and said the office should be run along business lines.

LEVISON also agreed to prepare speeches for ABERNATHY at ABERNATHY's request.

RUTHERFORD and LEVISON also discussed the fact that there were 642 Mexican Americans in Albuquerque and some Indians in the mid West who were ready to participate in the PCC but that no money had been used to provide them transportation. LEVISON urged that RUTHERFORD take this responsibility of sending the money and said he would share this responsibility with him.

RUTHERFORD and LEVISON agreed to send a "tough" telegram (appealing for funds) to WALTER REUTHER at the United Automobile Workers Union convention (in Atlantic City, New Jersey) over RUTHERFORD's signature and exactly as LEVISON had written it.

During the past 90 days voluminous pertinent information has been derived through this tesur indicating the extent of influence by Levison on Mrs. King and SCLC leaders regarding financial arrangements, fund raising, plans and policies. Some examples are as follows:

On March 29, 1968, Levison attempted to encourage King, who was discouraged over the Poor People's Campaign and his image.

On April 17, 1968, Levison told Mrs. King that it would be all right for her to take part in an anti-Vietnam rally and the Mothers' March but that Ralph Abernathy, new President of the SCLC, should not appear on a T. V. program since he would be gambling with his reputation.

On May 9, 1968, Levison drafted a "tough" telegram for the SCLC to send to Walter Reuther at the United Automobile Workers Union Convention appealing for funds.

On May 16 and 17, 1968, Levison was engaged in various arrangements and discussions regarding the race for the Democratic Presidential nomination, the gist of which was that Vice President Humphrey must be stopped.

Re: Stanley David Levison
Internal Security - Communist

WASH. D.C.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, learned on June 17, 1968, that on that date, Stanley Levison was in contact with Congressman John Conyers of Michigan, whom he had met at the funeral of Martin Luther King, Jr., President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). Levison noted that he had been informed that Conyers recently held a meeting of 100 black political leaders and that Conyers was pushing ahead with this organization.

Conyers questioned whether Levison was referring to the National Committee of Inquiry and Levison said that he was.

Levison told Conyers that he had developed and has maintained the SCLC mail appeal for the past eight years, which realized close to $600,000.00 while King was alive. He felt it should be easy to raise a quarter of a million dollars on a regular basis for the type of committee Conyers is organizing. He said he would like to discuss it with Conyers because he thinks he can operate such a thing along with what he is running for the SCLC.

Conyers told Levison that he would be interested in Levison's offer. He noted that his schedule has prevented him and Levison getting together and that he has not been giving the committee the attention it deserves. He also noted that they are holding a meeting at 9:00 AM on Thursday, June 29, at the Washington Hilton, the day after the Poor People's march. Conyers reiterated that he would like to review the committee with Levison because he believes it has a potential that all candidates are going to have to recognize, that they are being confronted with a serious national committee that is going to raise the kinds of questions that may not be raised unless they do it.

Levison noted he had talked to Harry Belafonte about the committee and that Belafonte is interested in it. He said also that he had talked to Coretta King about it in general terms and suggested that Conyers call her and ask her to join. USA.

Levison inquired if Richard Hatcher, Mayor of Gary, Indiana, was on the committee and Conyers said he was but that he has to be sure Hatcher is still with them. Levison stated that he talked with Hatcher at the funeral of Senator Robert Kennedy about how important this kind of committee could be and that Hatcher is very sympathetic to the idea. Levison advised Conyers that the names he thinks are first rate are those of Conyers, Coretta King, Harry Belafonte, Sidney Poitier and Richard Hatcher. USA.

Levison brought up the fact that Conyers had mentioned to him that he might be interested in having a young man working in his office, white or black. Levison said he knew a young, bright, white man, a graduate of Cornell who took his Masters work at Yale University, and who has been in jail in Mississippi and is very much involved in the cause. Levison added that this young man's father is wealthy and generous and has given 30-40 thousand dollars a year to the SCLC. He said the young man wants to stay with the cause in a political role and that he, Levison, was thinking of the young man's father to provide the money to start the mail proposition for the committee. He said he would talk this over with Conyers.

Conyers noted that he could use a young man in his office, but that there are no openings in his office as such. Levison commented that he had been thinking that this person might do something with the development of the committee. Conyers agreed and said he would like to discuss this with Levison.

According to the source, Levison planned to go to Washington, D. C. for the Poor People's march, on June 19, 1968, and that he and Conyers agreed to meet in Washington prior to the march.

Re: Stanley David Levison
Internal Security - Communist

On June 26, 1968, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, learned that on that date, Stanley Levison and Moe Foner discussed the Committee of Inquiry being organized by Congressman John Conyers of Michigan. Levison, according to the source, agreed with Foner that Coretta King's major emphasis will be in this committee. N.Y. (9)

Levison noted that the reason he is interested in this committee is because it may be the new, young, responsible leadership (among Negroes). He mentioned that John Conyers is for peace and was pro-peace when it was difficult to take this position as was Mayor Richard Hatcher of Gary, Indiana. He said the same thing applied to Coretta King and that he sees these people as the type who can play a real role. (9)

SUBJECT: NATIONAL COMMITTEE OF INQUIRY
RACIAL MATTERS

Through a sensitive New York source we have developed data regarding contacts between Stanley Levison and Congressman John Conyers (D. - Michigan) and also between Levison and Mrs. Coretta King, widow of Martin Luther King, Jr. Levison was the principal advisor to Martin Luther King, Jr., and has been identified as a secret Communist Party member as late as 1963.

The above-mentioned contacts pertained to a National Committee of Inquiry which, according to Levison, would be made up of Negroes who hold public office. These Negroes would examine issues and the Negro candidates who are running for particular public offices. The Committee would then decide as to whether or not the Negro candidates should or should not be endorsed by the Committee. As possible members of the Committee, Levison mentioned Conyers; Mrs. King; Harry Belafonte, the entertainer; Sidney Poitier, the actor; and Richard Hatcher, Mayor of Gary, Indiana.

The June 16, 1968, issue of "The Worker," an east coast communist newspaper, mentioned that Congressman Conyers was forming captioned Committee and the article indicated that Conyers would be one of the leading forces establishing a black caucus at the Democratic Party Convention which will be held in Chicago, Illinois, in August, 1968.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE OF INQUIRY

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past furnished the following data on June 17 and 18, 1968.

Stanley Levison has taken an interest in the National Committee of Inquiry which Levison has described as a committee made up of Negroes who hold public office. These Negroes will examine issues and also examine the Negro candidates who are running for public office. The Committee would then decide as to whether or not the candidates should be endorsed.

Levison had been in contact with Congressman John Conyers of Michigan regarding the National Committee of Inquiry. Levison indicated to Congressman Conyers that he had been told that Congressman Conyers recently held a meeting of 100 "black" political leaders and that Congressman Conyers was proceeding with plans for the National Committee of Inquiry. Levison offered to conduct a mail appeal for the Committee. Levison and Congressman Conyers made plans to meet in Washington, D. C. on June 19, 1968.

Levison indicated to Congressman Conyers that he had talked about the Committee with Harry Belafonte, the entertainer, and that he, Levison, had mentioned it in general terms to Mrs. Coretta King, widow of Martin Luther King, Jr. Levison suggested that Congressman Conyers contact Mrs. King and ask her to join the Committee. Congressman Conyers indicated to Levison that Richard Hatcher, Mayor of Gary, Indiana, is on the Committee and Levison stated that he knew that Mayor Hatcher was very sympathetic to the idea of the Committee.

COPIES SENT WHITE HOUSE AND ATTORNEY GENERAL, AND DEPUTY AG; AAGs, CD, IS; IDIU; SECRET SERVICE; ARMY; NAVY; AIR FORCE.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE OF INQUIRY

In addition to Meyer Hatcher, Levison mentioned Mrs. King; Harry Belafonte, the entertainer; Sidney Poitier the actor; and Congressman Conyers himself as possible members of the Committee. (5)

Levison advised Mrs. King that Congressman Conyers intended to contact her to ask her to join the National Committee of Inquiry. Levison indicated to Mrs. King that Martin Luther King, Jr., had been interested in this Committee and that he, Levison, believes she should join it. Mrs. King indicated she was in favor of the Committee. (6)

Levison is an advisor to the Southern Christian Leadership Conference which is sponsoring the Poor People's Campaign and has been identified as a secret Communist Party member as late as 1963. (6)

The June 16, 1968, issue of "The Worker," an east coast communist newspaper, contained an article which indicated that Congressman Conyers was forming a "Reviewing" Committee of 100 nationally prominent Negro leaders to evaluate candidates in the coming election. The article indicated that the intent of this Committee is that no candidate would get the Negro vote unless he had a sweeping program to help the "black" people. In the article, Congressman Conyers was depicted as "a Black militant and peace fighter." It was indicated that he would be one of the leading forces which would establish a "black" caucus at the Democratic Party Convention which will be held in Chicago, Illinois, in August, 1968.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, learned on July 4, 1968, that on that day Stanley Levison and Chauncey Eskridge, SCLC legal advisor in Chicago, discussed a meeting they were to attend in Washington, D. C. on July 5, 1968. Levison indicated that Marian Logan, SCLC Executive Board member, might be asked to attend the meeting but that he felt they could discuss the profundity of SCLC's constitution without her.

Eskridge indicated that there are financial matters within the SCLC that Levison should discuss with Coretta King because many things are her own property but others are the property of SCLC or were put together by SCLC people. He said that in Coretta's mind anything to do with Martin Luther King is to be the property of the estate unless she wants to devote it to one of her charities.

Levison stated he did not intend to discuss these matters with Coretta King. He added that because of Coretta's feeling about it and because of the attitude of both Andrew Young and Ralph Abernathy, SCLC Executive Vice President and President, respectively, they have to deal with anything that has to do with Martin Luther King as part of the estate and the consideration SCLC is getting, and should get, is Coretta's appearances for fund-raisings such as the SCLC dinner in New York from which the SCLC received $100,000 in pledges.

They agreed that one day they would have to discuss all such matters with Coretta.

Eskridge mentioned that there is to be an SCLC fund-raising affair in the Hollywood Bowl on the 17th (of July) run by a Hollywood sports committee. Levison stated that there is a great deal of money around, that the SCLC will probably be getting a lot of it, but the organization will grow weak.

Eskridge told Levison that the two of them are going to straighten the organization out.

He noted that, when Abernathy sent word from jail that Young was to take over his job and Eskridge Young's job, he immediately contacted Marion Wright (who had been a consultant to the SCLC's Poor Peoples Campaign) and had her prepare a training and activity schedule on what was to happen the following week. He added that when Abernathy is released from jail they are going to form a strategy committee and, at the SCLC meeting on July 5, 1968, they are going to have to out-think any effort to take the SCLC over at its convention in August, 1968. Eskridge mentioned that the "Atlanta Constitution", an Atlanta, Georgia newspaper said that Coretta was going to seek the presidency of the organization.

Levison felt she would not want this office and will probably state that she is not seeking it. He said he did not believe she will say that she will lend her support to Abernathy.

Levison noted that Abernathy has to be made see that he cannot lead SCLC alone. He blamed Abernathy for what he considers the failure of SCLC's operation. Levison indicated that he believes Abernathy, Young and Joe (Lowery, SCLC Officer) would make a good leadership team for SCLC from a public image standpoint. He said the white people like Young, the Southern and less sophisticated Negroes like Abernathy, and that the middle class (Negroes) look at Joe as an image of themselves, intelligent, sophisticated and successful. 5

Eskridge and Levison agreed to meet the next day at the Howard Johnson Motel in Washington, D. C. U

A review of information furnished by [redacted] (classify "Secret"), indicates that the young man LEVISON recommended to Congressman JOHN CONYERS on 6/17/68, for employment in CONYERS' office is ROBERT EARL FILNER, son of JOSEPH HYMEN FILNER. On 6/18/68, LEVISON told JOE FILNER that he had spoken to CONYERS about BOBBY but that CONYERS would not be able to pay him (BOBBY) and that the job would normally pay about $12,000.00. FILNER wondered if it would be dishonest to make a contribution to CONYERS in this amount and LEVISON said it would not but that it might create a problem with BOBBY and BARBARA.

LEVISON suggested that FILNER establish a grant for research for one of the people on the (CONYERS) staff and that then BOBBY could take his place. LEVISON said he would be going to Washington and, perhaps, could see CONYERS and set something up. LEVISON said he would take it up with CONYERS and see what happens.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, learned on June 17, 1968, that on that date Stanley Levison recommended to Congressman John Conyers of Michigan that he employ in his office in Washington a young man described by Levison as a graduate of Cornell University, who had been jailed in Mississippi for civil rights activity.

S.C.

The source subsequently developed information indicating that this individual is Robert Earl Filner, son of Joseph Filner, an associate of Stanley Levison. According to the source, Levison, subsequent to his contact with Conyers, told Joseph Filner that he had spoken to Conyers about Bobby and that the job would be in Conyers' office but that Conyers would not be able to pay him.

Filner questioned what the salary for the post in Conyers' office would be and Levison stated it would be about $12,000.00. Filner also questioned whether it would be dishonest to make a contribution to Conyers in this amount and Levison, although he felt it would not be dishonest, recommended that Filner establish a research grant for one of the persons on Conyers' staff thereby allowing Bobby to replace him.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

CONYERS ALSO REMARKED THAT THEY PLANNED TO GET OUT A STATEMENT ON ROCKEFELLER AND REVIEW HIS PROGRAM, GOOD AND BAD AND ALSO WOULD CALL A PRESS CONFERENCE IN WASHINGTON ON AUGUST TWO.

LEVISON ASKED WHO WOULD BE MAKING THE DETERMINATION ON ROCKEFELLER AND CONYERS SAID IT WOULD BE THE COMMITTEE. LEVISON QUESTIONED THIS AND CONYERS STATED THAT THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE WOULD DO IT. CONYERS NAMED THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEMBERS AS HARRY BELEFONTE, CORETTA KING, RICHARD HATCHER (MAYOR, GARY, INDIANA), RALPH ABERNATHY (PRESIDENT, <sup>Southern Christian Leadership Conference</sup> SCLC), JULIAN BOND (GEORGIA STATE LEGISLATURE), FLOYD MC KISSICK (FORMER NATIONAL DIRECTOR <sup>Congress of Racial Equality</sup> CORE), (BLANK) BENNETT, AND HIMSELF.

CONYERS NOTED THEY HAVE EMPOWERED ALL LOCAL COMMITTEES TO MEET WITH ANY CANDIDATE AND THEREFORE THE NEW YORK COMMITTEE COULD MEET WITH ROCKEFELLER. HE NOTED THAT (SENATOR EUGENE) MC CARTHY MET WITH THEM IN DETROIT ON JULY TWO SEVEN BUT DID NOT DO TOO WELL. HE SAID MC CARTHY, HOWEVER, LEARNED A GOOD DEAL AND INTRODUCED CONYERS' ~~X~~ FULL OPPORTUNITY ACT ON MONDAY, AS SOON AS HE GOT BACK. LEVISON NOTED THAT HE AND

ANDREW YOUNG (SCLC EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT) HAD LUNC<sup>H</sup> WITH MC CARTHY SOMETIME AGO AND GAVE HIM A LOT OF <sup>ADVICE</sup> ADVISED. LEVISON SAID ONE COULD NOT TELL IF MC CARTHY IS AGREEING OR NOT BUT THAT HE FOLLOWED THROUGH WEEKS LATER ON A NUMBER OF THINGS THEY SUGGESTED TO HIM. HE SAID THIS WAS THE ONLY TIME THEY KNEW HE HAD ACCEPTED THE ADVICE.

CONYERS STATED HE LIKES MC CARTHY PERSONALLY BUT THAT HE HAS NO UNDERSTANDING OF THE BLACK SITUATION IN AMERICA AND THAT HE, CONYERS, QUESTIONS WHETHER MC CARTHY CAN SHAPE UP FAST ENOUGH. LEVISON AGREED.

LEVISON ASKED IF CONYERS WAS READY FOR A FUND-BASH - APPEAL MAILING AND CONYERS, REFERRING TO THIS AS THE MAILING LEVISON WAS TO HANDLE, SAID HE INTENDED TO CONTACT LEVISON ABOUT IT. LEVISON STATED HE WANTED TO SHOW THAT THIS CAME FROM MARTIN LUTHER KING AND THEN GET INTO THE SUBJECT MATTER.

CONYERS STATED THAT HE THOUGHT OF FORMING A LOOSE ORGANIZATION CALLED QUOTE "FRIENDS OF THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE OF INQUIRY" UNQUOTE SO THAT SOME WHITE PEOPLE CAN GET A GROUP DOING THE KIND OF THING THEY ARE DOING. LEVISON AGREED.

CONYERS MENTIONED HE HAS ACCESS TO ALL THE BLACK NEWSPAPERS IN THE UNITED STATES, THAT NO STATEMENT HAS BEEN RELEASED, BUT SOMETHING WILL BE RELEASED TO THEM NOW THAT THE COMMITTEE HAS AN OFFICE.

CONYERS SUGGESTED THAT HE AND HIS WORKERS COULD COME TO NEW YORK AND SIT DOWN WITH SOMEONE LEVISON WOULD DECIDE UPON IN NEW YORK.

LEVISON SUGGESTED THAT LOCAL ONE ONE NINE NINE, DURG AND HOSPITAL EMPLOYEES UNION, COULD BE HELPFUL. HE ALSO SUGGESTED THAT A TRADE UNIONIST SHOULD BE ON THE COMMITTEE AND STRONGLY RECOMMENDED CLEVELAND ROBINSON, TREASURER OF DISTRICT SIX FIVE, RETAIL WHOLESALE AND DEPARTMENT STORE WORKERS UNION. CONYERS SAID HE WOULD CONTACT ROBINSON IMMEDIATELY AND PUT HIM ON THE COMMITTEE IF HE AGREES.

CONYERS STATED THAT THEY HAVE PERSONS RESPONSIBLE FOR STATES NOW; ALDERMAN RHEMER IN ILLINOIS, JOHN HOLLMAN IN NEW YORK, THE HEAD OF THE DOCTOR'S MEDICAL DIVISION, DOCTOR ALBERT WHEELER IN MICHIGAN, HEAD OF THE NAACP AND ASSEMBLYWOMAN YVONNE BRATHWAY IN CALIFORNIA. (ALL NAMES PHONETIC). CONYERS SAID

Dear Mrs. Stegall:

Reference is made to the memorandum furnished to you on June 24, 1968, concerning the interest of Stanley Levison in the formation of the National Committee of Inquiry, a committee of Negroes formed to decide whether or not a candidate for public office should be endorsed. Congressman John Conyers of Michigan was instrumental in forming this Committee. Reference is also made to my letter dated July 9, 1968, concerning the desire of Martin Peretz of Harvard University to arrange a meeting of Levison; Andrew Young, the Executive Vice President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference; and Senator Eugene McCarthy.

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past has furnished the following information about the above matters.

The Executive Committee of the National Committee of Inquiry consists of Congressman Conyers; Harry Belafonte, the prominent Negro entertainer; Coretta King, the widow of the late Martin Luther King, Jr.; Richard Hatcher, the Mayor of Gary, Indiana; Ralph Abernathy, President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference; Julian Bond, a member of the Georgia State Legislature; and Floyd McKissick, former National Director of the Congress of Racial Equality, a militant civil rights organization.

An office of the Committee is to be opened in Washington, D. C., during August, 1968, and the Committee will then start issuing statements to all newspapers in the United States aimed at Negro readers.

The Executive Committee of the group was to make a determination on and issue a statement concerning Governor Nelson Rockefeller of New York after reviewing his record in public office. However, the New York committee was empowered by the Executive Committee to meet with Governor Rockefeller and question him on his views.

Senator Eugene McCarthy of Minnesota met with the Committee in Detroit, Michigan, on July 27, 1968, and it was the impression of Congressman Conyers that Senator McCarthy's appearance before the Committee was not particularly successful. However, Congressman Conyers felt Senator McCarthy learned something at the meeting and did introduce Congressman Conyer's Full Employment Act on July 29, 1968, as soon as he returned to Washington, D. C.

Levison and Congressman Conyers, according to our source, agreed on the advisability of organizing a loose organization called Friends of the National Committee of Inquiry so that some white people can start doing the same thing the Committee is doing.

Levison and Andrew Young met with Senator McCarthy at lunch some time ago and advised him on a number of matters. Levison felt it was difficult to determine if Senator McCarthy was agreeing with the advice or not but noted subsequently that Senator McCarthy followed through weeks later on many things Levison and Young suggested to him. According to Levison, this was the only time Senator McCarthy accepted their advice as far as he knew. Levison and Congressman Conyers agree that Senator McCarthy has no understanding of the Negro situation in the United States.
