WINCHELL SAID:

"Washington Post: The U.S. Internal Security Committee has subpoenaed a large group of Americans working for Tass News. This agency feeds news to Russia. They appear this week in executive session. One is an American-born girl from Washington, D. C."

COMMENT:

We were informed previously of intention of Senate Internal Security Subcommittee to subpoena a number of U. S. citizens who have been employed by Tass. The American-born girl from Washington, D. C., apparently is [redacted] former Washington correspondent for Tass, who was released by Tass in July, 1955, when Tass dispensed with services of American employees. Following her release, we considered interviewing [redacted] but decided not to do so. At that time we knew Senate Subcommittee was interested in interviewing her. On 2/6/56, we received information to the effect [redacted] has been subpoenaed.

WINCHELL SAID:

"New York Daily Mirror: Harvey Matusow - he worked both sides of the fence - goes to trial in Federal Court, New York, on the 20th."

COMMENT:

Matusow's trial on perjury indictment in Southern District of New York is scheduled for 2/20/56, but the U.S. Attorney expects it will actually go to trial within one or two weeks after that date.

Memorandum for Mr. Boardman

WINCHELL SAID:

N.Y.
D.C.
"New York City: A political scandal, ladies and gentlemen, that received puny attention in the New York papers was the Paul Hughes case. Hughes was acquitted of perjury. The New York World Telegram-Sun was one of the very few newspapers to feature the verdict on the editorial page as well as its opinion. The following slap in the face is from that exciting editorial: 'Regardless of the verdict, the Hughes case uncovered for the public a shabby plot to smear Senator Joseph McCarthy. Whether one likes Senator McCarthy or not, the effort to use bogus, derogatory information against him merits only contempt. Another sequel to the Hughes trial must be the flushed faces in the ADA' (that's the Americans for Democratic Action) which, says the World Telegram-Sun editorial, 'has made so much righteous to-do about the use of paid informers.'"

COMMENT:

For your information. Hughes was acquitted on 2/3/56 of perjury. He had been charged with lying to a grand jury investigating Harvey Matusow.

WINCHELL SAID:

"Broadway: And the fact that America's best known blonde moving picture star is now the darling of the left-wing intelligentsia, several of whom are listed as red frontiers. I do not think she realizes it."

COMMENT:

N.Y.
This possibly refers to Marilyn Monroe. A recent news article concerning the divorce action between Arthur Asher Miller, prominent author, and his wife, reflected it was rumored Marilyn Monroe was linked romantically with Miller. On interview by newsmen both of them admitted friendship but denied any romantic ties. Miller is the author of "Death of a Salesman"

[REDACTED]

We have not conducted security investigation concerning Marilyn Monroe. b7c

Memorandum for 1 Boardman

WINCHELL SAID:

"Washington: Two very prominent musical comedy authors on Broadway, formerly married to each other, have been positively identified as Communist Party members in secret testimony. They will be subpoenaed by a Congressional committee next Tuesday."

COMMENT:

On the basis of limited identifying data, check at Seat of Government and at New York Office has failed to identify individuals referred to above. Discreet inquiries are continuing in effort to identify these individuals. At this time we have no knowledge of committee hearings scheduled for Tuesday to interrogate such individuals.

"Playwright Arthur Miller reported next husband of Marilyn Monroe will get his marital freedom tomorrow. Next stop, trouble. The House Un-American Committee subpoena for Arthur Miller will check into his entire inner circle, which also happens to be the inner circle of Miss Monroe, all former communist sympathizers."

COMMENT:

Miller, author of "All My Sons" and "Death of a Salesman," was a communist discipline in the 1930's and a member of the House Un-American Committee (HUC) in 1945, 1946, and 1947. He has been a member of the Communist Party (CP) since 1945. On 5-29-56, the Committee subpoenaed Miller to appear before it on 6-12-56. Miller is a member in 1943. He is unable to testify as a witness in the Party. Miller inquired whether the subpoenaed data was now available.

WINCHELL SAID:

Washington, D. C. The Senate investigators will stage a very sensational melodrama on June 10, 1956, in New York City. Six water front leaders will be confronted by Senator Victor Wiesel, who lost his sight in the fight against labor racketeers."

COMMENT:

Congressmen have urged a labor racket inquiry in connection with the attack on Wiesel. The inquiry may be a result of the inquiry urged by the congressmen. The purpose is to investigate the investigation of the "Obstruction of Justice" matter in which Wiesel was the victim.

SUBJECT: WALTER WINCHELL'S BROADCAST
JULY 1, 1956

Winchell's broadcast was not carried locally on station WWDC due to the broadcast of a baseball game. The following items of interest to the Bureau in Winchell's broadcast of above date were obtained from the New York Office.

WINCHELL SAID:

Playwright Arthur Miller, husband of Marilyn Monroe, refused to disclose names of comrades with whom he once attended Red front meetings. Committee will astonish Miller by telling him those nine names.

COMMENT:

Miller was under communist discipline in the 1930s and was a CP member in 1943, 1946, and 1947. He has been a member of or connected with a number of CP front organizations. Miller testified before HCUA on 5/21/56, and admitted having attended meetings in 1937 or 1940 which he understood were meetings of CP writers, however, Miller refused to furnish any names. Miller also admitted having contributed to communist fronts.

WINCHELL SAID:

International news, London - "Time and Tide," British publication, had a remarkable scoop. "Now that the cruel ways of Joe Stalin have been abandoned we hope that Mrs. Khrushchev will be released from Siberia. She was arrested and deported in 1938 by Stalin for whom Mr. Khrushchev was carrying out mass purges.

WINCHELL SAID:

Paris - French Government suffered another badly depleted division of reserves in Algeria. Washington and London now fear a general war in North Africa by autumn.

COMMENT:

For information.

WINCHELL SAID:

Washington - Dr. J. B. Matthews, former staff director of the McCarthy Senate Committee will take the stand July 10. The star government witness for HCUA investigating recent report by Fund for the Republic which alleges many people are blacklisted in radio and TV. Fred Woltmann, a Pulitzer prize-winning newspaperman of the Scripps-Howard paper made the following serious indictment of that fund report. Said Mr. Woltmann "In documenting case histories of alleged blacklisted victims the report repeatedly suppressed their full communist record."

COMMENT:

Winchell is referring to the study of blacklisting in the motion picture, radio and TV industry that began in September, 1951, under HCUA, 600 grant from fund for the Republic. Study conducted by Owen Cogley, former executive secretary of the National Catholic Weekly magazine. The HCUA announced that it was subpoenaed Cogley to appear on 7/10/56 to discuss the recently completed report on "blacklisting." No information is available as to Cogley. Files reflect no relevant information concerning him.

WINCHELL SAID:

W. W. discussed Arthur Miller and the Congressional Investigation Committee. W. W. said some people are confused. They confuse Marx and Lenin with Romeo and Juliet. W. W. states that the Government is not trying to interfere with the romance of Miller and Monroe. Some papers give that impression. Mr. Miller testified that he once supported Red front outfits, but he refused to name comrades to that committee who attended meetings with him. Mr. Miller said he could not name them on the grounds of conscience. W. W. reviews Communist Party as criminal conspiracy and the effect Smith Act has on Communist Party. Mr. Miller testified that he stopped all Red front activity ten years ago. Before I go into next, I want to add that Mr. Miller's conscience did not stop him from following communists or having Joseph Rauh, Jr., as his lawyer. Mr. Rauh reportedly paid $8,000 to a fellow named Paul Hughes as an informer whose stuff just did not stand up before a United States Senator. Anyway Miller testified he stopped all Red front activity 10 years ago. I am now in possession of a pamphlet which shows Arthur Miller was either mistaken or perhaps his name was misused or that he lied under oath. This pamphlet names Miller as sponsor of the Citizens Emergency Defense Conference to "Defend the Smith Act Victims." The Smith Act is the only law to jail convicted Reds. Mr. Miller testified he quit all Red fronts 10 years ago. This pamphlet shows that Miller was sponsor of this pro-Red conference in New York City March 16, 1952, or 4 years ago.

COMMENTS:

Arthur Miller is not fourth rater. The Citizens Emergency Defense Conference now defunct has been cited by the Department of Justice pursuant to Executive Order 10450. Our files show that Arthur Miller was listed on the executive board of the organization in 1952. Paul Hughes was tried and acquitted in connection with the Harvey Matusow case. Hughes made a confession and admissions in regard to Rauh and is representative of the "Washington Post and Times Herald" concerning Senator Joseph McCarthy.

WINCHELL SAID:

Inside the Communist Party. Seven Communist Party members were recently arrested in Boston for violation of the Smith Act. The 7 Boston Reds approached 22 law firms trying to get permanent counsel. All 22 firms turned them down.

COMMENT:

For information.

WINCHELL SAID:

Party chiefs Gene Dennis and Dr. Albert Blumberg held a very secret meeting at Philadelphia.

Movie Stars Named in Magazine Inquiry

Sources of Jurid Tales Revealed

Names of such high-end Hollywood talent as Kirk Gardner, Kirk Douglass, Kim Novak, Desi Ar-nazo, Sonny Tufts, Elizabeth Taylor, Herb Jeffries, Mick Rooney, Charlie Chaplin, Anita Ekberg and Marilyn Monroe sprinkle the 100-page grand jury Confidential magazine inquiry script which was filed in Superior Court yester-

The 100-page document is part of testimony by Actress Maureen O'Hara, Talia C. Playgirl Ronnie Quil-lan and others which on May led to the secret indictment of Magazine Publisher
Harrison, ex-Actress Dressa de Scaffal, and other persons and five corporations. The indictment was on charges of criminal conspiracy to publish libel and obscure material.

Bears Out Statement

The transcript bore out statements by both Miss O'Hara and Playgirl that they had told the jurors Confidential articles about them

It was disclosed that Ronnie Quillan, faded veteran of numerous Hollywood escapades, freely admitted that he marketed love and that she took money from Confidential to get affidavits from other prostitutes which involved male film stars in "low and colorful situations."

Miss Quillan said she first contacted Confidential to protect about a story concerning her and Singer Billy Daniels which was completely untrue.

Although Harrison said he wasn't interested in the "true facts" of that episode, Ronnie testified, he put her to work digging up dirt on other Hollywood figures.

Received $1600

She said she sold the magazine a story about Desi Ar-nazo which dealt with "my having gone around with him 10 years prior." She said Confidential's published article made the incident appear to be a recent one.

She said she was paid $1600 by Harrison for stories on Ava Gardner and Singer Herb Jeffries. Harrison, she testified, had Private Detective Jack Holcomb tap her apartment telephone to obtain "verification" of her stories.

But, she said, she never followed through on an assignment to substantiate an article about Actress Liza-beth Scott. She recalled that she was to try to have lunch with Miss Scott, recording the conversation on a microphone-wrist watch. But she didn't call the actress, she said, and was even told by Private Detective Virginia Lee that there appeared to be no truth in the article. Confidential wanted to print.

Harrison ran it anyway and subsequently was slapped with a lawsuit which is still pending in New York courts.

'Episode Smelled'

Virginia Lee, also known as Joan Morgan, testified that she did not know the nature of the work she was doing for her boss, Private Detective H. L. Von Wittenberg, until after she was told to get affidavits from two prostitutes
"about Desi Arnazo."

Von Wittenberg, also a witness during the two-day hearing, said he quit working for Harrison after the Arnazo investigation. He said
"the episode smelled. I told Harrison this was not for me."

Von Wittenberg, operator of Hollywood Detective Agency, said he also was assigned by Confidential to check out a story about Kirk Douglas that was offered the magazine by "Diana Manners, a former moving-picture personage."

Information on Tufts

It was Frank J. Goldberg, an unemployed Hollywood writer, who testified he sold the smear magazine information about Sonny Tufts. He

Dear [Redacted]

Your letter of December 3, 1962, with enclosure, has been received, and the interest prompting your communication is indeed appreciated.

The material appearing in the newspaper clipping forwarded by you, however, does not constitute a violation within the jurisdiction of this Bureau. I do want to thank you for bringing this information to our attention.

Sincerely yours,

ETP

NOTE: Correspondent is on the Special Correspondents' List.
Enclosure was a newspaper article concerning a statement of Marilyn Monroe reading to the effect that public display of sex is not to be scorned. This feature was to appear in "Eros," a publication already known to the Post Office Department.

The Secret Message of Lady Chatterley's Lover. A fascinating article on a peculiar form of love-making which D. H. Lawrence appears to have been advocating in his most widely read novel, unbeknown to many of his readers.

The Contraceptive Industry. A review in the manner of FORTUNE magazine of one of America's least-known-about but most lucrative businesses.

Vice in Old New York. A guided tour of the quarters of sin that pockmarked "New Sodom," as the city was called in Victorian times.

Dr. Theodor Reik on Erotomania. Cases of insatiable sexual passion described and analyzed by one of the world's most distinguished psychoanalysts.

From a 19th Century Aphrodisiac Book. A selection of amusing recipes with descriptions of the results they were supposed to have effected.

"1601" by Mark Twain. The complete text of this long suppressed masterpiece of which Twain himself said, "If there is a decent word findable in it, it is because I overlooked it."

The President's Daughter. The story of a book suppressed during the 1920s in which a certain Miss Nan Britton gave an account of a six-year-long relationship with an American President which culminated in the birth of a daughter out of wedlock.

America's Greatest Sex Experiment. An account of the mass test of "omnigamy" that took place at Oneida, N. Y., during the second half of the 19th Century. Every adult male had call on every adult female in this unprecedented experiment in communal conjugal relations.

Variety says: "EROS may replace bachelor etchings."

The San Francisco Chronicle says: "EROS takes the fig leaves off statues and there is nothing wrong with that; it is a status symbol on the coffee tables of our society."

The cost of single issues of EROS is $10 and annual subscriptions sell for $25. However, if you take advantage of our special Charter Subscription Offer which is available for a limited time only, you will receive a full year of EROS—four quarterly issues—for only $19.50!

YES, the rumors are true. Just before she took her life, Marilyn Monroe asked one of the world's most talented photographers to shoot a series of nude studies of herself. These last photographs of Marilyn Monroe are without doubt the love-liest photographs ever taken of the most idealized woman of our time. So dazzling are they, in fact, that Miss Monroe—who saw them before she died—specifically instructed the photographer to be sure to see that they be published. These photographs of Marilyn Monroe in the full flower of her beauty are a fitting memento of the woman who did so much to rid our nation of the baneful effects of puritanism. Obviously, these are the photographs by which Marilyn Monroe wanted to be remembered. A portfolio of these handsome photographs—comprising perhaps the most beautiful photographic essay of our time—will appear as a special feature in the next issue of EROS. The portfolio, 24 pages long, consists of almost 100 photographs, many in glorious color, together with the full story of how these pictures came to be taken. This photographic essay—a collection of items never again obtainable—will appear exclusively in EROS and will be seen by no one but EROS subscribers.

What is EROS? EROS represents this country's first attempt to produce a really worthy magazine on the ever-fascinating subjects of Love and Sex. Until now, these subjects have been relegated to cheap and tawdry periodicals. In EROS, the talents of the world's most gifted writers, artists and photographers have been mustered and applied to a periodical of elegance and grace. Subjects which customarily have been sensationalized or degraded are handled in EROS with dignity and good taste. EROS is a unique intellectual commodity. It is literate without being stuffy, bold without being sensational and artistic without being obscure. In a typical issue of EROS you will find such diverse (and often abstruse) features as:
Masterpieces of Erotic Art. The unknown or long-suppressed works of such masters as Rodin, Tintoretto, Rembrandt, Michelangelo, Hogarth, Toulouse-Lautrec and Picasso.
Was Shakespeare a Homosexual? A problem which has perplexed scholars for centuries is tackled by a noted biographer.
The Erotic Sculpture of India. Twenty-two pages of statuary in a forthcoming issue of EROS depict the Hindu Art of Love, with text by the distinguished author Santha Rama Rau.
Slave Owners and Negro Concubines. Recapitulation of a little-known chapter of ante-bellum history.

in the belles lettres and beaux arts of mankind. In format, EROS resembles the most costly of art books. It is folio size and casebound in hard cover for permanent preservation. Each issue looks like an expensive limited edition volume (which, in a sense, it is, since EROS is published in an edition of only 75,000 copies). The Saturday Review has dubbed EROS "The American Heritage of the bedroom."

... you will start receiving EROS within two weeks.
 We urge you to subscribe now before the issue containing the Marilyn Monroe photographs is sold out.
 Note: If you wish to purchase only the issue containing the Marilyn Monroe photographs, but you do not wish to subscribe to a full year of EROS, you may do so by checking the appropriate box in the coupon and remitting only $10.

ROBERT F. KENNEDY

deceased

Robert Kennedy had been having a romance and sex affair over a period of time with Marilyn Monroe. He had met her, the first date being arranged by his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lawford. Robert Kennedy had been spending much time in Hollywood during the last part of 1961 and early 1962, in connection with his trying to have a film made of his book dealing with the crime investigations. He used to meet with producer Jerry Wald. He was reported to be intensely jealous of the fact that they had been making a film of John F. Kennedy's book of the PT boat story.

Robert Kennedy was deeply involved emotionally with Marilyn Monroe, and had repeatedly promised to divorce his wife to marry Marilyn. Eventually Marilyn realized that Bobby had no intention of marrying her and about this time, 20th Century Fox studio had decided to cancel her contract. She had become very unreliable, being late for set, etc. In addition, the studio was in financial difficulty due to the large expenditures caused in the filming of "Cleopatra".

The studio notified Marilyn that they were cancelling her contract. This was right in the middle of a picture she was making. They decided to replace her with actress Lee Remick. Marilyn telephoned Robert Kennedy from her home at Brentwood, California, person-to-person, at the Department of Justice, Washington, D. C. to tell him the bad news. Robert Kennedy told her not to worry about the contract -- he would take care of everything. When nothing was done, she again called him from her home to the Department of Justice, person-to-person, and on this occasion they had unpleasant words. She was reported to have threatened to make public their affair. On the day that Marilyn died, Robert Kennedy was in town, and registered at the Beverly Hills Hotel. By coincidence, this is across the street from the house in which a number of years earlier his father, Joseph Kennedy, had lived for a time, common-law, with Gloria Swanson. Calif

Peter Lawford, [redacted]

[redacted] knew from Marilyn's friends that she often made suicide threats and that she was inclined to make a suicide attempt in order to arouse sympathy. Lawford is reported as having made "special arrangements" with Marilyn's psychiatrist, Dr. Ralph Greenman, of Beverly Hills. The psychiatrist was treating Marilyn for emotional problems and getting her off the use of barbiturate. On her last visit to him, he prescribed several tablets, and gave her a prescription for 20 of them, which was unusual in quantity especially since she saw him frequently.

On the date of her death, March 4, 1962, her housekeeper put the bottle of pills on the night table. It is reported the housekeeper and Marilyn's personal secretary and press agent, Pat Newcombe, were cooperating in the plan to induce suicide. Pat Newcombe was rewarded for her cooperation by being put on the Federal payroll as top assistant to George Stevens, Jr., head of the Motion Picture Activities Division of the U. S. Information Service. His father, George Stevens Sr., is a left-wing Hollywood director, who is well known for specializing in the making of slanted and left-wing pictures. One of his pictures was the "Diary of Anne Frank". Pat Newcombe was flown within 48 hours port just before Pat Newcombe. On the day of [redacted]'s death, Robert Kennedy checked out of the Beverly Hills Hotel and flew from Los Angeles International Airport via Western Airlines to San Francisco, where he checked into the St. Francis Hotel. The owner of this hotel is a Mr.

London, a friend of Robert Kennedy. Robert Kennedy made a telephone call from St. Charles Hotel, San Francisco, to Peter Lawford to find out if Marilyn was dead yet. Peter Lawford had called Marilyn's number and sp with her, and then checked again later to make sure she did not answer.
Marilyn's housekeeper, after she had taken the second tablets, called psychiatrist for Marilyn and said she had taken the bottle of pills.
Marilyn expected to have her stomach pumped out and to get sympathy through her suicide attempt. The psychiatrist left word for Marilyn to take a drive in the fresh air, but did not come to see her until after she was known to be dead. Marilyn received a call from Joe DiMaggio, Jr. who was in the U. S. Marines, stationed at Camp Pendleton, California.
They were very friendly. Marilyn told him she was getting very sleepy.
The last call she attempted to make was to Peter Lawford to return a call he had made to her. Joe DiMaggio, Sr., known the whole story and is reported to have stated when Robert Kennedy gets out of office, he intends to kill him. [redacted] know of the affair between Robert Kennedy and Marilyn.

Chief of Police Parker, of the Los Angeles Police Department, has the toll call tickets obtained from the telephone company on the calls made from Marilyn's residence telephone. They are in his safe at Los Angeles Headquarters. Florabel Muir, the columnist, has considerable info and knowledge of the Robert F. Kennedy and Marilyn Monroe affair. She personally saw the telephone call records. Marilyn Monroe's psychiatrist although he knew she had taken the pills, did not come to her home until after she was dead. He made contact with the coroner and an arrangement was made for a psychiatric board of inquiry to be appointed by the coroner, an unheard of procedure in the area. This was so the findings could be recorded that she was emotionally unbalanced. It was reported this arrangement was to discredit any statements she may have made before she died.

of December 3, 1965 has an article on the Marilyn Monroe case, indicating a book was being written and mentions a tie-in with a high Washington, D.C. official. George Stevens, Jr., of the U. S. Information Agency, heads a unit that makes films for the U. S. Government. He previously was an assistant for his father. He was a first lieutenant in the U. S. Air Force, 1954 - 1956, and was appointed director of the Motion Picture Service Agency, a division of U. S. Information Agency on January 31, 1965.

During the period of time that Robert F. Kennedy was having his sex affair with Marilyn Monroe, on one occasion a sex party was conducted at which several other persons were present. Tap recording was secretly made and is in the possession of a Los Angeles private detective agency. The detective wants $5,000.00 for a certified copy of the recording, in which all the voices are identifiable.

PEOPLE:

Engagement Party

There were so many newspapermen milling around the lobby of the apartment house on New York's East Side that the superintendent said they were a fire hazard, and the tenants grumbled about calling the police.

The reporters wanted to see the woman in apartment 8-E, but she didn't want to see them. She didn't feel like it, and besides, she hadn't yet made up her face. So far as she was concerned, they could just keep milling, while she lounged around watching a repairman tinker with her air conditioning.

Which is precisely what they did, until the repairman came downstairs. Then they mobbed him: Did she say anything? Was it true?

Was she going to marry him?

Triumphantly, the repairman replied: "She said to me: 'Sure I'm going to be married.' She was wearing form-fitting beige treader pants."

In that haphazard way, the world learned last week of the engagement of Miss Marilyn Monroe, a motion-picture actress of parts ("How to Marry a Millionaire"), to Arthur Miller, a playwright of parts ("Death of a Salesman"). The engagement already had been reported at length by the Broadway and Hollywood columnists. And it already had been confirmed by Miller in Washington, where he was appearing before the House Committee on Un-American Activities. Since it was the biggest tabloid story of the week, however, it took M.M. herself to make it official.

Plans: When Miss Monroe, who previously had been married to Jim Dougherty, a West Coast policeman, and Joe DiMaggio, the ex-Yankee slugger, finally talked to the reporters herself, she said the wedding would take place sometime before July 13, when she had to leave for England to begin a movie with Sir Laurence Olivier.

What about her wedding gown?

"Any kind," she murmured. "I think

The repairman said: 'They'll wed'

I'd like it to be simple... something that looks like a wedding dress."

Who had done the proposing?

"I guess he sort of initiated it," she said. "It was sort of simultaneous."

And, finally, what about Miller's testimony in Washington that same day that he once was affiliated with a host of Communist fronts though he never was under Communist discipline?

"I don't know much about politics. I'll have to have a talk with him and I think he's very tired. He's had quite a day."

Politics might play a role in the honeymoon anyway. At the week end there were rumors in Washington that Miller might be cited for contempt for refusal to name his associates in his pro-Communist days, and he still had to get a passport. His last application, in 1954, was denied, but he said he is now prepared to sign the State Department's non-Communist oath.

An article in the July 10, 1956, edition of the "Daily Worker" captioned "MILLERS Fly to England Friday" reflected that ARTHUR MILLER and actress MARILYN MONROE would fly to England on Friday (July 13, 1956) on a honeymoon and business trip.

The "Daily Worker" is an East Coast Communist daily newspaper.

b7c [REDACTED], Chief, Passport Legal Division, Passport Office, Department of State, advised SA [REDACTED] on July 6, 1956, that ARTHUR MILLER was issued Passport Number 129936 on July 6, 1956, limited to expire in sixth month, not to be extended without the express authorization of the Department of State. In his passport application, dated May 17, 1956, at Reno, Nevada, MILLER stated he intended to proceed by plane to England from New York City for a period of one month to six weeks approximately July 15, 1956, to cast and assist in production of his play, "A View From The Bridge."

An article in the August 29, 1956, edition of the "New York Daily News" reflected that on that date, ARTHUR MILLER had arrived in New York from England to spend ten days to two weeks with his children. The article reflected that at the end of that time, MILLER would probably return to England to rejoin his bride, actress MARILYN MONROE.

An article in the September 12, 1956, edition of the "New York Daily News" reflected ARTHUR MILLER had returned to England.

B. Marital Status

An article in the July 3, 1956 edition of the "Daily Worker" reflected that ARTHUR MILLER and MARILYN MONROE were married in a civil ceremony at White Plains, New York, on Friday, (June 29, 1956), and were subsequently remarried at Katonah, New York, on July 1, 1956, in the Jewish faith.

II. AFFILIATION WITH THE COMMUNIST MOVEMENT

A. Miscellaneous Activities

An article in the June 21, 1956, edition of the "New York Journal American", a daily newspaper, captioned "House To Quiz MILLER On Passport Dispute", reflected that ARTHUR MILLER, Broadway playwright, would interrupt his romance with Hollywood's MARILYN MONROE, "today" to appear before the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA). According to the article, MILLER was scheduled to testify on his "passport b&#pgr;e" with the United States State Department and further that the members were certain to quiz MILLER on his alleged links with "some 29 organizations cited as Communist fronts by the House Committee on Un-American Activities or the United States Attorney General."

An article in the "New York Times", a daily newspaper, edition of June 22, 1956, datelined June 21, 1956, and captioned "ARTHUR MILLER Admits Helping Communist Front Groups In 40's", reflected that MILLER "discloses today a past filled with Communist front associations." According to the article, MILLER told the HCUA he had signed many appeals and protests issued by "Red front groups" in the last decade." He denied being "under Communist discipline."

The above article reflected that MILLER was asked about his sponsorship of a World Youth Festival in Prague in 1947; the signature on a 1947 statement against the outlawing of the CP; a signature on a statement defending GERHART EISLER before he fled this country to become a top Communist official in East Germany; a statement attacking the HCUA; and statements opposing the Sapper Act. The article reflected that MILLER stated he had no memory of most of these things but that he would not deny them.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

NY 100-57673

MILLER said that he was not directed or misled into attending CP meetings but rather that his growing up in the depression and maturing in the midst of war, and many forces in his personal life led him for a time to seek in Marxism a fount of authority, from which might flow a stream of values, in which "I could wholly have faith." The article further reflected that MILLER said he came away from CP meetings convinced that his temperament and viewpoints were diametrically opposed to those of Marxists.

An article in the July 11, 1956, edition of the "New York Daily News," captioned "Vote Contempt Citation Against ARTHUR MILLER" reflected that on July 10, 1956, that the HCUA voted a contempt citation against ARTHUR MILLER.

An article in the July 26, 1956, edition of the "New York Journal American" captioned "MILLER Prosecution Studied by BROWNELL" reflected that on July 25, 1956, the United States House of Representatives voted to cite MILLER for contempt of Congress and that the Justice Department was deciding whether to prosecute MILLER upon his return from England where he was honeymooning with actress MARILYN MONROE.

B. Communist Party (CP) Fronts

A. National Council of the Arts, Sciences, and Professions (NCASP)

The Congressional Committee on Un-American Activities, Review of the Scientific and Cultrual Conference for World Peace, arranged by the National Council of the Arts, Sciences, and Professions, and held in New York City, on March 25, 26, and 27, 1949, House Report No. 1954, April 26, 1950, (originally released April 19, 1949) page 2, describes the National Council of the Arts, Sciences, and Professions as "cited as a Communist front."

b7c [Redacted] Reporter, "New York Daily News," on 7/11/56, furnished information that on 7/3/56, the "New York Daily News" received an anonymous telephone call from an unidentified male during which he stated that ARTHUR MILLER had been and still was a member of the CP and was their cultural front man. The anonymous caller said that MILLER's religious marriage ceremony to actress MARILYN MONROE and MILLER's public statements were so much cover up. [Redacted] stated that according to the anonymous caller, MARILYN MONROE had drifted into the Communist orbit and money from MARILYN MONROE Productions was finding its way into the CP. This source stated that MARILYN MONROE Productions was filled with Communists.

Miller Wins Reversal Of Contempt Sentence

Appeals Court Rules Walter Failed To Clarify Command to Playwright

By HOWARD L. DUTKIN
Star Staff Writer

The full nine-man bench of the United States Court of Appeals today reversed the contempt of Congress conviction of Playwright Arthur Miller, husband of Actress Marilyn Monroe.

Mr. Miller was convicted in Federal District Court here last year for refusing to tell the House Committee on Un-American Activities the names of Communist writers with whom he admittedly met in New York in 1947.

The appellate court directed District court to enter a judgment of acquittal.

The appellate court found that Chairman Walter of the House committee failed to make definitely known to Mr. Miller that he was being commanded to answer the question at issue.

The court pointed out that after the question was first asked, Mr. Miller requested that the question be suspended until a later time.

Lack of Clarity Found

The court found that the chairman did not make clear later that the question was being insisted upon.

Attorney Joseph Rauh, jr., representing Mr. Miller, also had contended that the question was not pertinent to the subject under inquiry by the committee. At the time, the committee was investigating the abuse of passport privileges by Communists.

On the pertinency issue, the court declared that in view of its ruling on the direction to answer, it was unnecessary to go into the pertinency question.

Opinion Unsigned

"The appellant (Mr. Miller) had the right to leave the hearing thinking that the direction to answer was still suspended if not abandoned," the court held. The opinion was unsigned.

District Court Judge Charles F. McLaughlin had given Mr. Miller a suspended 30-day jail sentence and imposed a $500 fine.

Mission to Moscow

Marilyn Monroe to Moscow

A visa for Marilyn Monroe (above) to visit the Soviet Union has been applied for, according to Dr. Carleton Smith, head of the advisory art committee of the National Art Foundation. Dr. Smith reported in London that a visa for Miss Monroe was being sought as part of a cultural exchange program.

In New York, Miss Monroe said: "I am looking forward to visiting Russia and other countries. I have not applied for a Soviet visa but there is a possibility I may visit there some time in the future."

Subject was contacted at 9 A.M., on 9/21/56 by SAS [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] in front of Sagamore Cafeteria, 8th St. and 3rd Ave., NYC, [REDACTED] from subject's residence. After being advised of the identity of the Agents, a request was made to speak with the subject regarding a confidential matter. Subject readily admitted his identity and agreed to accompany the Agents to a Bureau car parked at a discreet distance from the place of contact. Here the Agents reintroduced themselves and again displayed their credentials. The subject shook hands with both Agents and carefully examined their credentials, while engaging in friendly conversation. In this conversation subject indicated that he was presently attending a NY college in pursuit of his MA degree in [REDACTED] and that he was not presently employed.

Enc

It was pointed out to the subject that the Agents might possibly be known in the neighborhood, and he agreed to ride with them to a less conspicuous area. This was done and subject was interviewed on an untraveled portion of E. 10th St., NYC, until approximately 12 noon. Subject, at the outset, was advised of the Bureau's responsibilities and investigative jurisdiction in the internal security field.

Subject was then asked whether he knew of anything which would aid the FBI in fulfilling its responsibilities, it being pointed out that we were in possession of information tending to indicate that subject was, or had been, connected with the CP.

Subject advised that he was acutely aware that this interview would subsequently be reduced to writing and be made a matter of official record; therefore, he desired to be considered "as cooperative as possible," and would conduct himself and answer questions towards that end. He stated that while he

Subject answered "No" to all questions, but subsequently modified his answer to the extent that he admitted having attended meetings at which people, whom he knew to espouse the Communist line, and who had been said by others to be Communists, had attended. He denied that Progressive Party meetings held at Ohio in 1950 fell into this category, and stated that this party, in his opinion, was not Communist controlled. Subject would not further elaborate on this topic.

Subject was asked to state how he came into contact with the Communist movement, how he came to disavow it, if in fact he had, and for any comment he might wish to make on this subject. [redacted] stated that his present position on Communism and his attitude was best stated by ARTHUR MILLER, Playwright and husband of MARILYN MONROE, in several of the released MILLER had made to the press. He stated, that like MILLER, he had "found Communism in the sifting search for a philosophy of life." He stated that he has "rejected" but has not "denounced" Communism, that he likewise holds all other US parties in similar contempt, and at this point strongly criticized the Democratic Party for its Dixiecrat element, and the Republican administration for its failure to make a show of force in the recent racial incidents throughout this country. Asked to explain why he did not "denounce" Communism, but yet "rejects" it, he stated that the word "denounce" is too strong, and that he associated the word "denounce" with certain individuals, usually former Communists, who now loudly attack the Communist philosophy, naming their likewise misguided associates, without the slightest feeling of shame that they themselves had been ardent exponents of Communism. b7c

He stated that Marxism - Leninism is not for the Negro. That now he considers himself a political nonentity and reiterated substantially the following statement:

I am politically nothing, no political party or form of government has the answer to my (the Negro) problem. I no longer have any interest in political philosophy, [redacted] I believe I am good in this field, I am not the best, but I believe I can do a creditable job. This is all I am interested in, regardless b7c

SUBJECT: INSUB. "LIFE" MAGAZINE PHOTOGRAPHER; [REDACTED] INFORMANT] qu
SM - C

Re Buffalo letter to Director dated 2/11/56.

Re letter contained information furnished by [REDACTED] on 1/30/56, which reflected that MARILYN MONROE was taken on a tour of Brooklyn by "a Life Photographer who is a party member." No further information was given concerning this photographer.

An article appearing in the "Washington Post" of 4/15/56, indicates that MILTON GREENE is Vice-President of Marilyn Monroe Productions. GREENE was a photographer for "Look" Magazine; is 34 years old; and married to AMY GREENE. According to the article, MARILYN MONROE came to NY in 1955 and moved in with the GREENES. She appeared on the EDWARD R. MURROW program, "Person to Person" from the home of the GREENES in Westport, Conn.

b2 Buffalo is requested to recheck the material furnished by [REDACTED] to ascertain if the photographer was ever mentioned as being from "Look" magazine during the conversation between [REDACTED] b7c Buffalo is also requested to review indices and the files of [REDACTED] for any information on MILTON GREENE. P.

ACGM continues as an informal association of persons with mutual communist sympathies. Approximately thirty persons identified as pertaining to the inner circle of this group, with another forty or so identified on the fringe of this group as well as another thirty who do not reside in Mexico but associate with the ACGM on visits. Residence, employments, and thumbnail sketches of these individuals set out. No attempts at formal organization. Most are relatively inactive for fear of disturbing their status in Mexico. Sino-Soviet schism has been mirrored within the ACGM. [REDACTED] and her husband have traveled to Cuba this year. (NW)

MOSCOW? - MARILYN IS SILENT

THE phone bell rang all day yesterday in Marilyn Monroe's luxurious suite at Waldorf Towers, New York.

"What's this about you going to the Soviet Union to study drama?" reporters wanted to ask her.

But all they got was the switchboard operator, who repeated to one caller after another: "Miss Monroe does not answer."

So the reporters tried the Soviet Embassy in Washington, where they learned that Miss Monroe had indeed applied for a visa earlier in the week.

LONG SILENCE

"We are considering it," an Embassy spokesman said.

The excitement started when Mr. Carlton Smith, chairman of the National Arts Foundation of New York, said in London yesterday that Miss Monroe had asked him to get a visa for her.

Before that, there had been no word for months from the world's most glamorous blonde.

Except a hint, oft repeated, that she wants to make "Dostoevsky," "The Brothers Karamazov" and other serious films.

T-3 further advised that [redacted] and his wife had received an invitation to a function from LEE STRASBURG. [redacted] said that STRASBURG was an important individual in the New York theater world and if at all possible, the [redacted] should attend. In any event, [redacted] told [redacted] that he should go to the function since the famed movie actress MARILYN MONROE would be present. The informant stated that [redacted] indicated he was going to the West Coast, and did not know whether he would be available for this function. (S) u

On May 15, 1957, T-3 advised that [redacted] the World Affairs Council, Seattle, Washington, told [redacted] that his group would attempt to schedule [redacted] for an appearance on their program during the last half of June or early part of July, 1957. [redacted] advised [redacted] that he desired the council have a specific time for him to appear before he could arrange a trip to the West Coast. [redacted] according to the informant, agreed to attempt to set up a more specific date for [redacted] appearance. (S) u

On May 17, 1957, T-3 said that [redacted] told [redacted] that the World Affairs Council was intrigued with the idea of [redacted] appearance on a program, but they felt this was "a bit touchy." The Council felt it would be better if they could have [redacted] counterpart from the magazine "Amerika" on the same program. The informant stated that [redacted] had no objection to this, and they agreed to keep each other advised on developments regarding [redacted] appearance before this group. (S) u

"Amerika" is the publication of the American Embassy, Moscow, USSR.

On April 26, 1957, T-7, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that [redacted]

[redacted] New Jersey, [redacted] that he (S) b1 was interested in impressing American undergraduates with the finesse demonstrated by gymnasts at the Olympic games. The informant stated that [redacted] described himself as [redacted] New Jersey Committee for Health and Physical Education Development, Incorporated, and had also been present at the 1956 Olympic games [redacted] (S) u

Source related that at [redacted] direction they also attempted to contact [redacted] (phonetic), who is the [redacted] New York City area, but were not successful. Source stated that [redacted] had been a New York City politician, had received $18,000 a year salary and was employed by an Italian judge, name not recalled, in New York City.

Source related that they had also visited [redacted] New York City, who source described as a [redacted] and while at his office [redacted] ran an 8 or 16 mm. "French-type" movie which depicted Marilyn Monroe, deceased actress, in unnatural acts with an unknown male. Source advised that [redacted] informed them that he had obtained this film prior to the time Marilyn Monroe had achieved stardom and that subsequently former baseball player Joseph Di Maggio had attempted to purchase this film from [redacted] and had offered him $25,000 for same. [redacted] intimated it was the only such film in existence and that he would not part with it.

Source continued that they departed New York City approximately 7:00 PM on February 10, 1965, and they dropped [redacted] off at his home in [redacted]. Source related they had used [redacted] bearing New York license plate [redacted].

It is noted that during [redacted] trip to New York City on February 9, 1965, agents of the Albany and New York Divisions conducted a surveillance of him, [redacted] from Utica, New York to New York City. The results of this surveillance bore out information furnished by source and further, based on contact with source, the New York Division has opened a new Potential Confidential Informant case on [redacted] in New York City and personally acquainted with numerous high ranking LCN members there.
